

EARLY SOUTHARDS

of

NEW YORK and NEW JERSEY

THE NAME

The name SouthARD seems to have been a Dutch variation of the name SouthWORTH. According to most opinion, the variation developed during the 1500's when many English fled to Holland to escape religious persecution. There they raised families and their children intermarried with the Dutch. In the second and later generations they probably talked Dutch more fluently than English. (There has been some opinion that there were SouthARDS in England before the major exodus to Holland in the 1500's, but authority for this conclusion does not seem convincing to this writer. It appears more likely that any earlier SouthARDS in England also adopted that variation after Dutch exposure.)

Variations in 1790 Census

Incidence of Southard variations in the first federal census of 1790 illustrates both physical distribution of families and dominance of English and Dutch spellings. Numbers and ratios vary considerably between Maine in the north and Carolina in the south. In Maine there were few by any spelling. In Mass., there were 32 SouthWORTH families, 3 SouthWARD and no SouthARDS. In Conn., there were 5 SouthWORTHs, 12 SouthWARDs and 2 SouthARDS. (Incidentally, it can be shown that the 2 SouthARD families in Conn., moved there from Long Island, N. Y. before the Rev. War.)

In N. Y. there were 5 SouthWORTHs, 16 SouthWARDs and 11 SouthARDS. Closer examination of the N. Y. distribution indicates that many of the SouthWARDs were actually SouthARDS, as explained below.

In N. J. the 1790 census was destroyed by fire, but other data suggests the distribution there approximated that for N. Y. Surprisingly enough, in Penn., there were no SouthARDS, or SouthWORTHs and only one SouthWARD. In states further south there were few by any spelling. Md., had none. Va., had one SouthWARD and none of the other variations. South Carolina had none at all.

Early Local Variations

In N. Y., where the progenitors of the Southard family traced here lived and where early members were born, spelling also varied widely. This is easily varified in records concerning individuals clearly documented as brothers, cousins, etc. It is illustrated in the records of St. George's Church in Hempstead, L. I., where many members of the family were married and children baptized. In these records spellings varied as follows:

In 8 cases the spelling was SouthWORTH

In 32 it was SouthWARD

In 13 it was SouthARD

In 6 it was SouthERD

In 17 it was SUTHard

it was first suspected that different branches of the family might have adopted different spellings and that this could help in identifying branch members. But this was soon recognized as a misleading theory. The spelling seemed to vary with those recording the names. It apparently changed with the phonetic interpretation of the recording clerk.

Present Spellings

Among recent descendants in New York and New Jersey, the spelling seems to have settled down to SouthARD ALTHOUGH a few living members of the family have apparently adopted the spelling, SouthWARD. So far the writer has not succeeded in relating any wider variations with the families discussed here. One illustration is a family of SouthWICKS, several members of which appear in N. J. census reports for Ocean County during the middle 1800's. In this family, given names are, in general, unlike those familiar among known SouthARDs and no evidence of any relationship has appeared.

SOURCES of INFORMATION

The Nettie Allen Collection

The late Nettie Allen of Basking Ridge, N. J. apparently intended to complete a genealogy concerned mainly with descendants of Abraham (3) who settled in the Basking Ridge area around 1750. Before her death in 1966 she produced a rather large chart that starts with Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard, but detail in the following diagrams is confined to the family of Abraham (3) (See later) This chart is part of a "Nettie Allen Collection" now in the Bernards Township Library of Basking Ridge. The collection also includes many file cards with names and dates and much correspondence.

Unfortunately I did not learn of Miss Allen's work until much research on descendants of Abraham (3) had been completed. However, the duplication was not a complete loss. About a third of the data I had collected was not in the Nettie Allen Collection and roughly a third of that she had compiled was new to me.

The Seversmith and Eardeley Notes

Another extensive collection of Southard data that has been especially helpful in connection with the early generations has been made available to me by Merlin D. Wolcott of Canton, Ohio. Mr. Wolcott is a Southard descendant and has written articles on early family history. I learned of his interest late in 1973 and, during a subsequent exchange of letters, he told me about the Seversmith and Eardeley notes and made his copies available to me. The late Herbert F. Seversmith, a biologist by profession, published four volumes of "Colonial Families of Long Island" before he died in 1967. The Southard section had not been included, but the unpublished notes were left with the East Hampton Free Library of East Hampton, N. Y. In these notes Seversmith had credited "the late William Applebie Eardeley" (1875-1935) as a source. Eardeley was a professional genealogist who specialized in Long Island families. He had collected notes concerned with early Southards, but had not published this information.

Again, as in the case of the Nettie Allen Collection, I had not learned of the Seversmith and Eardeley research until many months had been spent in going over much of the same ground. However, as before, the duplication was far from a total loss. My search had turned up data that had apparently not been found by Seversmith and Eardeley. And the same was true in reverse. Also in many circumstances early information is scarce and it was helpful to learn how others had interpreted the few facts available. In some cases my conclusions were quite different.

Other Sources

In addition to the major sources cited above, many living descendants have provided information concerning their own branches, or their immediate families. This has been much appreciated and where the contributions have been rather substantial, they are identified in the text.

Most of the effort concerned with collection of data for all branches, from the first census of 1790 on, has been devoted to the usual routines of searching for wills, marriage, baptism, death records, etc., and going through successive census reports. In this my wife, Anne E. Potter has been an especially helpful and willing assistant. Her only conditions were that I organize the hundreds of pages of notes collected, assume responsibility for the rather extensive correspondence and leave her out of the authorship. However, she has my sincere thanks! - RKP

EARLY MOVES AWAY FROM HEMPSTEAD

Most early Southards in New York and New Jersey were descendants of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard, who were married on Long Island around 1650 and lived most of their married lives in Hempstead, N. Y. Despite the English origin of the surname, they were essentially Dutch. Like the Dutch, they probably considered the Revolutionary War to be an English quarrel and none of their affair. But when their English neighbors insisted they take sides in the argument and violence erupted in Long Island communities, many of the Southards decided to leave. Some went up the Hudson River to predominately Dutch settlements. Others went to Connecticut, or New Jersey where the sentiment was strongly in favor of the Revolutionaries. Some remained on Long Island. But none, as far as is known ever sided with those loyal to the English Crown. They seem to have inherited a special distaste for English authority.

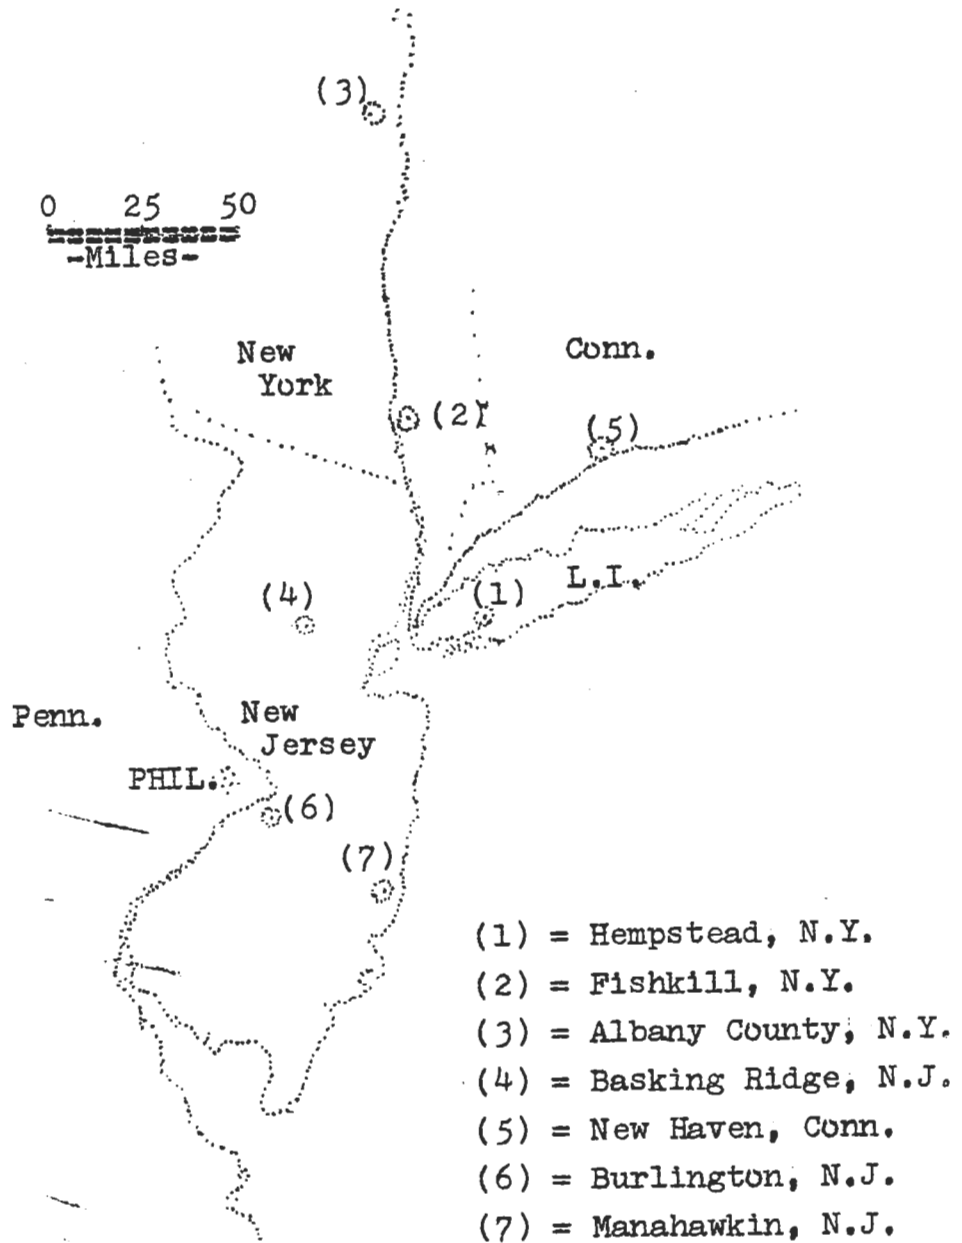

First to leave Hempstead (at "1" on the map that follows) was apparently Thomas (2), the oldest son of Thomas (1) and Annica. He moved up the Hudson to the Dutch community of Fishkill (See "2"), perhaps during the middle 1730's and died there in 1740. Around the early-to-middle 1750's, Henry (3), son of Thomas (2), also went to Fishkill and, in the summer of 1759, his brother Richard (3) followed. Henry (3) later returned to Hempstead, but Richard (3) stayed.

Sometime before 1750, John (3) and Joseph (3), sons of John (2), also went up the Hudson, but some 80 miles beyond Fishkill and on the other side of the River in Albany County, N. Y. (See "3" on map)

And in the summer of 1750 Abraham (3), son of Isaac (2) moved to the vicinity of Basking Ridge in northern New Jersey. (See "4" on map)

One son of Thomas (2) who elected to stay in Hempstead, was Samuel (3). He died there in 1763/4 and shortly after his death, two of his sons, Samuel (4) and William (4) crossed Long Island Sound to Connecticut. (See "5" on map.) They appeared there near New Haven in the 1790 census. Other members of the family went to Conn., but moved elsewhere before 1790. One of these seems to have been Caleb (3), a son of John (2), who married in St. George's Church at Hempstead in 1732, and apparently moved to Connecticut not long thereafter. But by 1764 certainly and probably some years before this, they were in Burlington, N. J. (See "6" on map.) And by 1769 they had moved across the state to the vicinity of Manahawkin, N. J. (See "7" on map) Caleb's oldest son died there that year and the father signed a will there in 1780. Both are recorded in Trenton, N. J.

All of the moves prior to the one described last, were undoubtedly by boat and it is likely the last one was by such conveyance, although there were some roads across N. J. by this time.

In the following pages descendants of THOMAS (1) and ANNICA (JANSEN) SOUTHARD will be discussed under these four headings:

Part I - Southards of Long Island

The first Southard known in this family was -

THOMAS SOUTHARD (1), b. abt 1615 and quite probably in Leyden, Holland. He died 1688/90 in Hempstead, L. I. Around 1650 he m. ANNICA (later Anglicized to EUNICE) JANSEN in the Dutch community of Gravesend, L. I. She was a dau of Anthony Jansen Van Salee and Grietje Reyniers. (For children, see later)

NOTE - It is interesting that Samuel G. Webber's "Genea. of the Southworths ---" (pp 1 & 21) shows a Thomas South-WORTH, b. in Leyden of English parents in 1616; d. in Plymouth, Mass. 8 Dec 1669. When this first came to my attention, it aroused some suspicion that this Thomas SouthWORTH may have been Thomas Southard (1) of Hempstead. Although this possibility has not been adequately researched, there are inconsistencies in the readily available data that make it seem unlikely. - RKP

During the late 1500's and early 1600's many English families went to Leyden, Holland to escape intolerance of the Church of England toward religious dissent. Leyden was then known for cultural freedom.

Later some of these Leyden English, or their descendants, came to America. A few joined the English communities in Mass., and Conn. Others apparently came on Dutch ships directly from Holland to New Amsterdam (later N. Y. City). Thomas Southard (1) may have been among the latter because he first appeared on Long Island among the Dutch of Gravesend, probably during the late 1640's. Subsequent happenings suggest Thomas worked as a farm hand for one Anthony Jansen, a rather well-to-do Dutch farmer of Gravesend. He married Anthony's oldest daughter, Annica, and on 29 Dec 1650, possibly with the dowry that accompanied this contract, he bought half the farm of a Nicholas Stillway that seems to have joined onto the 200 acres owned by his father-in-law.

Not long after this cozy arrangement was consummated, a quarrel developed between father and son-in-law. Differences were probably inevitable because both were quick-tempered and unsociable. Anthony seemed constantly at odds with the old Dutch courts and his wife was evidently anything but timid and ladylike. Around 1639 the two got into an argument with the local minister about their dues to the Church and during the shouting Grietje called both the minister and his wife "liars". The case went to Court and both were forced to apologize publically.

DEC. 29, 1650 - Thomas Applegate sold half of his farm,
IN GRAVESEND, to Thomas Southard, who had married
ANNA, daughter of ANTHONY JANSEN VAN SALEE

ON 20 April 1667, Thomas Southard bought land "ON FORDAM'S NECK, west of JOHN TROSDUELL'S LAND." [Genealogies of LONG ISLAND FAMILIES, N.Y. Biographical

A "Thomas Southard" appears in the Hempstead census of 1673.
(List of Inhabitants of Colonial New York, 1979, Edmund O'Callaghan, p. 36) - SCGS

Early Dutch Court records indicate that Thomas Southard (1) was equally temperamental. In 1658 a neighbor reported that Thomas attacked him with a club "and beat him about the head". The neighbor asked for protection and a Marshal was sent with a warrent to arrest Thomas. But the latter tore up the paper "and betook himself to his own house". In the end Thomas was required to pledge his lands, goods and chattels that he would appear in Court and keep the peace in the meantime. He lost the case, paid the Court costs and promised not to menace the neighbor in the future.

So it is not surprising that Thomas and his father-in-law were soon at odds. The reasons are obscure, but they seem to have had something to do with the ownership of cattle. By 1653 the quarrel had been taken to Court and Court records cite charges and countercharges. The Dutch Court "deplored such wrangling between father and son" and finally, in 1655, followed precedent and ruled in favor of the father. Thomas (1) sold his land in Gravesend soon after this verdict and took his wife and young family some 20 miles ~~west~~^{east} to the recently-settled English community of Hempstead. Here, on 8 Dec 1655, he bought a farm and about 2 months later, on 12 Feb 1656, purchased additional bordering acreage. (Later land records indicate the total amounted to about 214 acres.)

Following this move Annica changed her name to the more English "Eunice", which she seems to have used on all later occasions, with one exception. This was when her father died without a will around 1676 and the daughters and their husbands petitioned on 26 Sept 1676 for a share of the father's estate. Anthony's widow was granted letters of administration on 25 Mar 1677 and there are no indications that the daughters received anything.

Concerning Annica Jansen

Annica Jansen, the wife of Thomas Southard (1) was the oldest of four children- all daughters- of Anthony and Grietje (Reyniers) Jansen. Anthony and Grietje came to New Amsterdam (now lower Manhattan of N.Y.C.) around 1630. Anthony was b. in 1607- perhaps in Morocco- and d. on L.I. in 1676. Most historians have called him a son of Jan Jansen Van Haarlem who became Admiral of the Sultan of Morocco's fleet at Salee. Whether due to an ego brought on by this background, or a natural aversion to friendship, he was widely known as a very disagreeable fellow. As indicated earlier, he was constantly at odds with neighbors and he did not hesitate to tangle with the Dutch authorities, or the Church. (Several articles concerning the history of Long Island have included colorful descriptions of Anthony's background. An article by Hazel V. D. Roberts in N.Y. G. & B. Soc. Record, Vol 103, p. 16, attempts to evaluate these accounts. The discussion here is based largely on this reference. - RKP)

Anthony and Grietje were apparently married on the ship that brought them from Holland to New Amsterdam. Records show that the bride, whose maiden name was Grietje Reyniers, was a widow. She had been married in Amsterdam about three years earlier, on 26 Sept 1626, to a tailor named Albert Egberts. In the record of this marriage her age appears as 24, so she would have been born in 1602 and was 5 years older than Anthony. Her first husband d. in 1628 and there were apparently no children. On 15 Dec 1629 Anthony obtained a certificate permitting him to marry the Widow Egberts "on board". This certificate describes Grietje as "from Wesel, Germany". Presumably the two sailed soon after the certificate date and were married shortly at sea.

In New Amsterdam, Anthony bought land in what is now lower Manhattan of N.Y.C., and was considered a prosperous farmer. But his hostile disposition soon led to serious trouble, as a consequence of which, he was "banished" from New Amsterdam. However, the authorities seemed reluctant to press the verdict. Anthony took his time about leaving and even after moving to Long Island, continued to deal in New Amsterdam real estate for the rest of his life.

After selling the farm on what is now lower Manhattan, Anthony bought 200 acres some 10 miles SSE on Long Island near the community of Gravesend. His land fronted on Gravesend Bay, across from the present Coney Island and not far from the place where Henry Hudson was said to have come ashore from the "Half Moon" less than 50 years earlier in 1607.

Anthony and Grietje (Reyniers) Jansen had four children- all daughters- as listed below. (NOTE - They and their husbands are named in Bergen's "Early Settlers -- of King's County (N.Y.)", p. 155.)

1. ANNICA (later EUNICE) JANSEN, b. maybe 1632 after her parents, who had married on ship board, arrived from Holland and first settled in New Amsterdam (now lower Manhattan, N.Y.C. Eunice died after the special 1698 census for Hempstead, L. I. in which she is shown as the household head and living with her her youngest son Isaac. Probably around 1650, she m. THOMAS SOUTHARD (1) in Gravesend. There were 9 children. (See below later.)
2. CORNELIA (also later UNICE) JANSEN, m. WILLIAM JOHNSON. They appear in the 1698 census for Hempstead with a son Richard and a dau. Elizabeth who was apparently m. to William Gripman. Cornelia would have been around 60 at this time, so her children were undoubtedly grown. Other sons may have been Harne and

3. SARA (or SARAH) JANSEN, m. JAN (or JOHN) EMANS of Gravesend. (There are some indications this surname was a variation of Seamans which appears frequently in the early records of Kings County, N.Y.) The will of John Emans of Gravesend, signed 7 Aug 1714, names his wife as "Engeltie", so Sarah may have died, or changed her name. The will refers to 6 ch. -
 1. Johanes Emans, "the eldest". His will of 1723/4 names his wife as Neeltie and 7 ch. in this order: John, Esther, Sarah, Neeltie, Eamy, Thomas and Johanna.
 2. Andries (or Andrew) Emans, d. 1728/9. His will, signed 1 Sept 1728 in New Utrecht, Kings Co., N.Y. and proved 6 Jan 1729, names his wife as "Rebecca" and 7 ch. -
 - (1) Hendrick "my eldest son". The will left to him about 200 acres in Rocky Hill, Somerset Co., N.J. (In S tip of present county.)
 - (2) Johanes. He was left about 610 acres in Hunterdon County, N.J.
 - (3) Andrew was left "all my realestate in the town of Gravesend.
 - (4) Benjamin was left 300 acres in Middlesex County, N.J.
 - (5) Ann, m. John Verkerk
 - (6) Sarah, m. Teunis Polhemus
 - (7) Rebecca, "my youngest daughter".

 5. Sarah Emans, m. _____ Morgan
 6. Cornelia Emans, m. Paulus Amermen
4. EVA ANTONIS JANSEN, b. 1641 (bapt 3 Nov 1647 at 6 yrs), m. FERDINANDUS VAN SICKELLEN, who was b. abt 1635 in Holland and d. 1712 in

Gravesend, L. I. Ferdinandus, "late of Flatbush in Kings County" died intestate. The records say, "Letters of Admin are granted this 20 Apr 1712 to Johaness Von Sicklen, his son and heir, his widow having refused." This Ferdinandus Van Sicklen is considered to be the progenitor of the Van Sickle family in America. (See "History of the Van Sickle Family in the U.S. of A." by John W. Van Sickle (1880).) There were 8 ch. - 3 sons and 5 daus -

1. Reynier, b. abt 1661, d. after 1703, m. on 26 Mar 1687 to Jannetje Van Horne (or Hoorne). His will, signed 18 Nov 1703 in Gravesend, named his wife as "Jannettie", his eldest son as "Ferdinandus" and refers, without name, to four other sons. The will also mentions two step-brothers as John Van Horne and Gerritt Van Horne.
2. Margrietje, b. abt 1663, m. 6 June 1691 at Flatbush to a widower, Jan Albertse Terhune. It is believed there were 2 sons, Roelof and Albert by the 1st wife and one named Auke by Margrietje.
3. Eva, b. abt 1666, m. 20 May 1693 to Jan Berden (or Bondet) of Hackensack, N. J.. There were 10 ch. -

6. Ferdinandus, b. abt 1675, signed a will 25 June 1737 in Gravesend, L. I. The will names his wife as "Gertruy". (Other sources call her Grietje and date the m. as "abt 1696".) This will names 8 ch in the following order -

Family Differences

When Thomas (1) died in 1688/90 he left no will. The Courts divided about 80 pounds, that comprised the monetary estate, among the 5 daughters and awarded the much more important real property to the oldest son, Thomas (2), as the "heir-at-law". Apparently the assumption was that he would work out an acceptable division with his brothers. But Thomas (2) was either reluctant, or unable to divide the old Southard homestead of some 214 acres to the satisfaction of those concerned. (According to land listings dated around 1658, Thomas (1) then owned about 214 acres in Hempstead, Thomas (2) had a farm of 69 acres elsewhere and John (2) had a home on only 3 acres. Apparently the youngest sons, Abraham (2) and Isaac (2), had no land of their own.)

Finally the brothers of Thomas (2) petitioned the Courts for intervention and, after many delays, a Committee of Arbitration was appointed. In 1706 this Committee submitted a recommendation and the Court made it binding. The homestead was divided into 3 parts that were awarded to the four sons as follows: The north third was given to John (2) and the south third to Thomas (2). (At this time both of these apparently had homesteads elsewhere.) The central third went to Abraham (2) and Isaac (2) together. (There were probably two reasons for this award of the central third. One was that, as shown by the special 1698 census of Hempstead, the widowed mother was living with Isaac (2). Another was that Abraham (2) did not marry and he too apparently lived with Isaac (2) and his family. When Abraham (2) died in 1725/6 he willed his part of the property to Abraham (3), son of Isaac (2). Abraham (3) was progenitor of the Southards of Basking Ridge, N.J. - See Part III - Southards of Northern N. J.)

The family affairs were finally settled, but probably not without strain. There are indications that the family of Thomas (2) and those of his brothers were not friendly during several later generations.

Below, between double and dashed lines, are known details concerning each of the 9 ch. of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard.

1. MARGARET SOUTHARD (2) dau of Thomas (1) and Annica, b. maybe 1652. She was bapt in the Dutch Church 1 Jan 1664, d. (?), m. abt 1675 to a widower, HARMAN HENDRICK (or HENDRICKSON) of Hempstead and previously of New Lotts and possibly Kingston, N.Y. Harman was a son of Hendrick Swearingh and Egbertje Jans. Teunis Bergen in his "Early Settlers of Kings County", p. 140, wrote that Hendrick was m. 1st to Elizabeth _____. But he may also have been m. around 1660 to Maddeleen Dircks. "Kingston Dutch Church Baptisms" by R. R. Hoes, includes 4 ch of Harmen Hendricksen bapt in that Dutch community between 1662 and 1667. According to Bergen, there were no ch. b. to Elizabette. The 1698 census of Hempstead shows Harmon and Margaret with 9 ch. One other who may have d.y., was identified by Bergen. The 10 known were -

- .1. HENDRICK HENDRICKSON (3), bapt 1679 "in N.Y." (The Kingston Dutch C. records show several ch. of "Hendrick Hendrixen" and Gertruyd deWit, bapt 1689 and later.
- .2. CORNELIA HENDRICKSON (3), bapt 1681 "in Flatbush". App d.y.
- .3. PHEBE HENDRICKSON (3)
- .4. THOMAS HENDRICKSON (3)
- .5. MARGARET HENDRICKSON (3)
- .6. UNICE HENDRICKSON (3)
- .7. JOHN HENDRICKSON (3)
- .8. MARY HENDRICKSON (3)
- .9. ABRAHAM HENDRICKSON (3)
- .10. EGBURCHE HENDRICKSON (3)

On 7 Oct 1690, "Harman Hendriche" signed a receipt for "my wife's part of the Estate of our father Decesed; sixtene pound fower shillins six pence". This was according to the division of Thomas Southard (1)'s monetary estate among the daughters as described earlier.

The "Hendrick Genea." by Charles T. Hendrick is the only one found that contains any reference to this Harman Hendrick. This reference (p. 600) is brief and based on the 1698 census list mentioned above. No attempt was made to show how these "Early Dutch Settlers of Hendrickson Ancestry", as they are called, are related to the family with which the book is concerned.

2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (2); s. Thomas (1) and Annica, b. 1660, d. 1740, m. FRANCES CHAMPTON who was b. 1661, d. 1757. Most of the family apparently moved to Fishkill in Dutchess County, N.Y. about 100 miles up the Hudson River. (For further details concerning this move and desc around Fishkill, see "Part II - Southards of Dutchess County, N.Y." p.

However, some in the family returned to L.I. after the Rev War was over and two of these are discussed below.

Among descendants of Thomas (2) and Frances (Champion) Southard who returned to Long Island after the Rev War were two sons of Thomas (4); Samuel (3), Thomas (2). They seem to have been sons by a 2nd wife whose name is not yet known. The two were,

..1. JAMES SOUTHARD (5), b. 1780 who settled near Oyster Bay, L.I. and was apparently progenitor of the Southards in that area until about 1860.

..2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (5), b. 1781/6 who prob lived 1st around Jamaica and later in Baldwins Harbor, L.I.

Families of these two are discussed in some detail below under successive single and broken lines.

..1. JAMES SOUTHARD (5), s. Thos (4), Samuel (3), Thos (2), was a farmer of Lattintown (near Oyster Bay, b. 1780, d. prob 1850/60, m. HANNAH _____ around 1810. An analysis of the early census reports indicates that they had at least 6 ch., 3 sons and 3 daus. Two of the sons were b. 1800-10 and one 1810-15. One of the daus was b. 1795-1800 and the other two 1800-1810.

During the 1850 census for Oyster Bay only 4 older Southards were listed. One other was named in the Town

2. THOMAS SOUTHARD: 11 October 1683 "Account of Valuation os Estate of Towne of Hempsted on Long Island" "THOMAS SUTHARD, 25 acres, 6 oxen, 8 cows, 7 hogs, 20 sheep and 3 horses" [As land records indicate that THOMAS SOUTHARD (1) had 214 acres by 1683, this entry is most likely THOMAS SOUTHARD (2). (E.B. O'Callaghan "Lists of Inhabitants of Colonial New York," 1979, p. 144)

Records. The five included the father, James, the youngest son Benjamin, b. 1815 and two others named Samuel and James, both b. in 1831. They were certainly not sons of Benjamin. It seems likely they were sons of Benjamin's older and unnamed brothers. A Southard mentioned in the Town Records, was Isaac T., b. 1835 who might have been Benjamin's son. Nothing is known about the daughters. What is known about the son Benjamin and the grandsons is summarized below.

Six ch. of James and Hannah appear in the census reports before 1850---

1. (DAU) (6), b. 1795-1800
2. (SON) (6), b. 1800-1810
3. (DAU) (6), b. 1800-1810
4. (SON) (6), b. 1800-1810
5. (DAU) (6), b. 1800-1810
6. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (6), "Waterman" of Oyster Bay, b. 1815, d. perhaps 1860/70, m. twice, 1st to PHEBE DUDGEON, who is identified as the wife of Benjamin in "Oyster Bay Town Records", Vol VIII, p. 349. He m. 2nd JANE _____ who was b. 1820 and d. "at her home in Lattintown (near O.B.) on 6 Nov 1888". She was Benjamin's wife in the 1850 census so Phebe must have died before this. 8 ch. were in the 1850 and 1860 census reports -

1. PHEBE SOUTHARD (7), b. 1837

2. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (7), b. 1839

3. CHARLES SOUTHARD (7), b. 1842. In the 1850 census, at 8 yrs of age, he was at home with his parents. In 1860, at 18 yrs, he was not there. Efforts to locate him elsewhere have been unsuccessful, so it is assumed he died between 1850 and 1860, or, since his father was a "waterman" he could have "gone to sea".

4. WILLIAM SOUTHARD (7), b. 1844. He was at home during both the 1850 and 1860 census listings, but, like his brother Charles, seems to have left that area later.

5. ISAAC T. SOUTHARD (7), b. 15 May 1845 and is described in the O. B. Town Records as s. of Benjamin and Phebe and a farmer. He seems to have enlisted in the Civil War at 16, giving his birth year as 1835, probably to avoid the need for parental consent. (NOTE - Benjamin (6) witnessed the will of an Isaac Shaw of O. B. early in 1845 and later that year named this son "Isaac". Possibly Shaw was a relative.-RKP)

- .:6. ALMA SOUTHARD (7), b. 1848
- .:7. EDWARD SOUTHARD (7), b. 1849
- .:8. MARY SOUTHARD (7), b. 1852

Probably nephews of Benjamin (6), by one or both of his older (unnamed) brothers were these two -

.:1. SAMUEL SOUTHARD (7), b. 1830, m. ANN R. _____, b. 1830, Samuel was not in the census after 1860. Possibly he enlisted. There were 2 ch in 1860 -

.:1. MARY L. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1856

.:2. JOHN SOUTHARD (8), b. 1859

.:2. JAMES SOUTHARD (7), b. 1831/32. Not far from the res. of Benjamin (6) in O.B., there was apparently a carpenter shop during the 1850 census. Several males working there were listed as "carpenters". Among these was "James Southard, Jr., 19 yrs" (So b. 1831). He was also shown as "single". In the 1860 census he was m. to ELIZA _____, b. 1841. They were still living in O.B. and near Benjamin (6). There was 1 ch -

.:1. PHEBE A. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1858.

NOTE - No male Southards appeared in the census reports of Oyster Bay for 1870 and 1880, although Jane, the widow of Benjamin died near there in 1888. Possibly there were still married daughters there. - RKP.

.:2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (5), s. Thomas (4), Samuel (3), Thomas (2), apparently lived 1st near Jamaica, L.I. Later records show him as "of Baldwins Harbor, L.I." (Much of the data following was provided by a desc, Mrs. R. M. Tucker, presently (1974) of Camp Verde, Ariz. - RKP) Cemetery records show his birth date as 29 Apr 1781. Census records make the year 1786. He d. 30 Nov 1862. On 29 Aug 1814 in the Grace Episc Ch of Jamaica, N.Y., he m. SARAH ANN (or JANE) MONTROSS. (See "Grace Ch. of Jamaica" (1914) by H. O. Ladd, p. 318.) Cem records show her as b. 12 Oct 1781, but the census reports indicate 1787. She d. 2 Nov 1879. 4 ch -

.:1. MELETIA SOUTHARD (6), b. 19 Jan 1814, d. 20 Apr 1895, m. abt 1840 to CHARLES H. JOHNSON, s. of John and Mary E. (Hultz) Johnson. He was b. 26 Feb 1802/4 and d. 30 Sept 1882. 6 ch - all daus -

:::1. MINNIE DENTON (8), b. 4 Feb 1885 in

WILLIAM HENRY TERRY 1 Oct 1905. He was b. 3 Apr

:::1. MILDRED EMELINE TERRY (9), b. 25 July
1906 in Freeport, L.I., m. twice. 1st on 23
Apr 1927 to THOMAS E. BRITTINGHAM, 2nd on 27
Oct 1949 to Reuben M. Tucker. They now (1974) live in Camp Verde, Ariz.

:::2. (SON) (6), b. 1815-20, "d.y." acc to Mrs. Tucker.

NOTE - re this unnamed (SON)- There were very few early Southards living near Jamaica where Thomas and Sarah were married. One "unknown" of that area who might have been the 1st son was -

THEODORE SOUTHARD of New Town (4 mi NW of Jamaica).
He appeared only in the 1850 census and was a schoolmaster, b. in N.Y. abt 1813. His wife was JANE _____ who was b. 1815. There were then 3 ch. -

1. JOHN W. SOUTHARD, b. 1843
2. WILLIAM E. SOUTHARD, b. 1845
3. CHARLES SOUTHARD, b. 1846
(Prob. others later.)

:::3. MARY ANN SOUTHARD (6), b. 14 July 1821, d. (?), m. twice. 1st on 24 June 1840 to DANIEL SMITH and 2nd on 24 Nov 1851 to ALBERT H. WHALEY. (In the 1850 census, Mary and Daniel and an infant were living with her parents.) Possibly the ch by Daniel d.y.
There were 5 ch by the 2nd mar, all b. in Freeport,
L. I. -

:::1. THOMAS (or HENRY) WHALEY (7), b. 7 May 1853,
m. ERMA SMITH.

:::2. ALBERT S. WHALEY (7), b. 19 Dec 1855

:::3. CHARLES E. WHALEY (7), b. 8 Nov 1858, m.
SUSAN VALENTINE.

...5. ELEANORA WHALEY (7), b. 1 Apr 1864. m.
FRANKLIN LEWIS

...4. (SON) (6), b. 1830-35, "d.y." (This might have been the son who appeared in the 1840 census as b.
1835-40 when Sarah was around 50.)

3. SARAH SOUTHARD (2), dau of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen)
Southard, b. maybe 1662, d. (?), m. JOHN BEADLE (BEDLE or m. 7 Oct 1690 BEDELL). He was a s. of Robert and Blanche Bedell. (See
"Robert Bedell of Hempstead, L.I. and His Descendants" by H. A. Tredwell, Jr. N.Y. G. & B Record, vol 71, 1940, p. 3.)
A will of "John Beadle, Sr., of Hempstead is among the early records of Janiaca, L.I. It was signed 26 Feb 1715/16 and probated on 3 Apr 1716. Therein his wife was named as "Sarah" so she was app alive then. Seven ch were named in the following order --

.1. JOHN BEADLE (3), Acc. to one source, he m. twice. The 1st wife's name is not known. The 2nd was ANN RUNION LAYTON.
A will of "John Bedel of Hempstead" was signed and recorded in 1759. (See Sawyer's "Index of Wills for N.Y. County, 1662-1850) The will names a wife "Elizabeth" and 6 ch. (not included here).

.2. SAMUEL BEADLE (3), b. abt 1686, m. FEMMETJE GRITMAN.

.3. JACOB BEADLE (3)

.4. BENJAMIN BEADLE (3). He wit the will of Abraham Southard (2) in 1725/6.

.5. MARTHA BEADLE (3), b. before 1698

.6. ELIZABETH BEADLE (3)

.7. PHEBE BEADLE (3)

NOTE - All of the above, except the last two, who were presumably not yet born, appear in the 1698 special census for Hempstead. This provides some indication of birth dates.
H. F. Seversmith also lists a daughter, Jane Beadle, who m.
B. Bergen and went to Elizabeth, N. J. He also has the "Martha"

4. JOHN SOUTHARD (2), s. Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard. b. perhaps 1663/4. Prob. d. 1730-40. M. GRACE _____, who appears as his wife in the 1698 census for H. Two ch were recorded in that census. A third is rather clearly identified by statements in the Town Records of H. and other bits of evidence. The last two of the 6 listed below are less certain, but probable-

- .1. JOHN SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1690-95.
- .2. JOSEPH SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1695-7.
- .3. CALEB SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1700
- .4. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1703
- .5. PHEBE SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1705.
- .6. MARY SOUTHARD (3), b. (?) m. CALEB CARMAN p. 43 Sept 160 - m. (Southard) Brown

see below

.1. JOHN SOUTHARD (3), s. John (2), Thomas (1), b. 1690/95, (He was in the 1698 census at H.), d. (?), m. HANNAH _____ abt 1724. Two ch are known and a 3rd is probable. Others are less certain and not listed here. The first 3 were -

:1. GLORIANA SOUTHARD (4), bapt 8 Aug 1726 at St. G's in H. Nothing more known.

:2. JOHN SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1727, d. intestate and his wife was made Admin of his estate on 8 May 1750. He m. AMY MAN 13 Nov 1748 at St. G's in H. One ch is known to have been b. before John d. and there is some evidence that another was b. after John's death. The one known is -

..1. ADAM SOUTHARD (5), who was bapt at St. G's Ch on 2 June 1749. No record of a Southard with this given name was found later.

:3. ABRAHAM SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1728, m. SUSANNAH _____. App lived in vicinity of present Barnegat, N.J. around 1750. Bapt dau Phebe at Christs Church in Shrewsbury, N.J. abt 40 mi up the N. J. coast from Barnegat on 12 May 1751. An uncle, Caleb Southard (3), lived a few miles S of Barnegat in Manahawkin, N.J. around this time. Nothing more known.

1738 Queens County Militia under command of Captain Jacob Hicks has

"JOHN SOUTHWARD, sergeant" and "JOHN SOUTHWARD, JR" (member) who are most likely

4. JOHN SOUTHARD (2) and

.1. JOHN SOUTHARD (3)

2. JOSEPH SOUTHARD (3), s. of John (2), Thomas (1). He was also named in the census of 1698. Prob. b. 1695/7. d. abt 1780-90, m. CATHERINE BARNESon 23 Dec 1737 in St. G's in H. Catherine was Dutch and this name was an Anglization of a name that appeared in other records as Chienche or Jineche Barentse. Also in the church records, Joseph's surname was spelled "Suthard" (About a month after this wedding, Joseph's cousin, Abraham (3), son of Isaac (2), married Catherine's sister Cornelia. More will be said about the Barnes family later, under the discussion of Abraham (3).) After the m., Joseph and Catherine lived on a part of the old Southard homestead that was awarded by the Dutch Court to John (2) in 1706. Joseph's brother Caleb (3) lived on adjacent property. Three ch are known, a 4th is rather clearly indicated -.

- :1. JOSEPH SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1737.
- :2. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (4), b. 5 June 1738
- :3. MARY SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1742
- :4. JOHN SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1745 see page 4

Between single and broken lines below is more detail concerning the above.

:1. JOSEPH SOUTHARD (4), s. Joseph (3), John (2), b. abt 1737. Bapt late and alone on 6 June 1756 in St. G's Ch. m. ALICE LANGDON, dau of Alchay Langdon of S. Hempstead. Evidence concerning subsequent doings of Joseph and Alice is rather perplexing. Three of their ch were bapt at St. G's in H. on 3 Oct 1772, but no evidence has been found that the parents were then living on Long Island. Joseph did not sign the L. I. Declaration of 1776 (described near end of this Part I) and he was not listed in the 1790 census, or later census reports for L. I. But in the 1790 census a Joseph Southard, Sr. and a Joseph, Jr. appeared as family heads in Clinton Town, Dutchess County, N.Y. (abt 25 mi NNE of Fishkill). These may have been Joseph (3) and Joseph (4). Also there are indications that Joseph (4) may have gone to southern New Jersey later. In any case, it seems likely the bapt at St. G's in 1772 was on the occasion of a visit. The 3 ch bapt in order of listing were -

- ..1. JOHN SOUTHARD (5), b. maybe 1756/7
- ..2. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (5), Prob b. abt 1758. Benjamin and his younger brother James are mentioned in that order in the will of his maternal grandfather, Alchay Langdon, signed 1 May 1786, but John is not, which might mean he had d. previously. At this time, Benjamin was married to REBECCA BRASS. The m. was at St. G's Ch on 6 Oct 1776. The will of 1786 mentions only one "dau of Benjamin". -

:1. FINLEY SOUTHARD (6)

. :3. JAMES SOUTHARD (5), b. maybe 1760-65. He app. m. ELIZABETH POOLE, dau of Perse Poole of H. No ch mentioned in his maternal grandfather's will of 1786.

:2. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (4), s. Joseph (3), John (2), b. 5 June 1738. Bapt with his younger sister Mary at St. G's in H on 23 June 1744., d. abt 1790 in Cape May County, southern N. J. m. 3 times. 1st abt 1761/2 to JANE _____, 2nd licen. to m. ABIGAIL HEWETT in Cumberland County, N. J. on 21 Apr 1773, 3rd licensed to m. PRISCILLA HILDRETH at Cape May, N. J. on 22 May 1789.

(See "PART IV - SOUTHARDS of SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY" for further details, p. 112.)

:3. MARY SOUTHARD (4), Dau of Joseph (3), John (2), Bapt with Benjamin (4) at St. G's in 1744. m. JAMES BENTLEY on 1 Feb 1768 in St. G's Nothing more known.

:4. JOHN SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1745. He went to southern N. J. with his older brother Benjamin (4) and there m. HANNAH FAULKINBURG of Little Egg Harbor (near Manahawkin where his uncle, Caleb (3) had settled earlier.

(See PART IV for further details. p.112) Married 25 March 1767, Little Egg Harbor Tp.

$. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (3), Son of John (2), b. abt 1703 in Hempstead, d. without a will abt 1731/2 when a relatively young man. m. 26 Sept 1725 in St. G's Ch. at H. to PHEBE WOOD

"N. Y. County Wills", Vol III, p. 76, shows him as, "Salem Southard, cordwainer, late of Hempstead". But the "Salem" was almost certainly Solomon. While Solomon is mentioned frequently in the early records, no other mention of a "Salem" has been found. Also a Phebe Southard, described as "his widow" was awarded Letters of Admin on 25 Sept 1732. (The 1698 census for H, lists a family of Jeremiah and Susannah Wood as living near Unice Southard, the widow of Thomas (1). It is believed Phebe was of this family.) After Solomon (3) died, Phebe seems to have m. 2nd, on 27 Jan 1735 at St. G's in H., "Thomas Sprag of Staten Island". (Acc to Seversmith, a Sprague Bible, then in the possession of Mrs. Staley of Maplewood, N. J. (not yet located by the writer) had this entry, "Edward Sprague m. Phebe Wood abt 1740". Presumably this was the above Phebe, but use of the maiden name leaves a question.)

No bapt records for the ch of Solomon (3) and Phebe (Wood) Southard have been found, but there indications of 4 ch. born to them during the 7 years of marriage before Solomon's death. The four so indicated were -

- :1. CALEB SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1730
- :2. PHEBE SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1727
- :3. ANNANIAS SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1728
- :4. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (4), b. around 1731

Further details re each of the above are included between single and broken lines below.

- :1. CALEB SOUTHARD (4), s. of Solomon (3), John (2), b. 1730, d. 1827 at 97. m. MARGARET (or MARY) SPRAGUE abt 1753. (The Sprague Bible mentioned above is also said to include reference to Margaret's marriage to Caleb Southard.)

Caleb signed the L. I. Declaration in 1776, so he was on the Island before the Rev War began and it is probable he and Margaret stayed there through the conflict. He was in the census reports of Hempstead for 1790 and 1800, but not later. Other records make the date of his death 1827 so he may have been away during the 1820 census. Margaret did not appear later as a family head, so she may also have left Hempstead, or died before 1830.

Bapt records for St. G's at H name 6 ch "of Caleb and Margaret Southard" and a 7th is listed in the Sprague Bible described above. The 7 were -

- ..1. ABEL SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1752
- ..2. PATTEE (Later ELIZABETH) SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1755
- ..3. CHARITY SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1760
- ..4. PHEBE SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1765
- ..5. DAVID SOUTHARD (5), b. 1768
- ..6. CALEB SOUTHARD (5), b. perhaps 1773
- ..7. AMY SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1778

Between successive, single dot and dash lines below some additional details are included for each of the above.

..1. ABEL SOUTHARD (5), b. 1752. He was bapt at St. G's with his sister Pattee on 1 Sept 1756. He d. 26 Nov 1833. Unmarried. At abt 24, he signed the L. I. Declaration of 1776. And he witnessed the will of his brother-in-law Elijah Pettit in H on 3 Mar 1829.

..2. PATTEE (Later ELIZABETH) SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1755. Bapt in St. G's 1 Sept 1756. She m. ELIJAH PETTIT. Her will, signed 17 Nov 1835, named David Southard as her brother and "his daughter, Peggy". Elijah Pettit's will, signed 3 Mar 1828, was witnessed by Abel Southard. Elijah is said to have been a grandson of Joseph Pettit, who was a clerk of the Dutch Court in the late 1600's.

..3. CHARITY SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1760. Bapt with Phebe and David on 10 May 1771. No further record found. Maybe d.y.

..4. PHEBE SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1765. Bapt 1771, Some evidence she m. JAMES PINKERTON at St. G's on 23 Oct 1796.

..5. DAVID SOUTHARD (5), b. 1768, Bapt 1771, d. 17 May 1844. m. RUTH MAGER (or MASER) of Brooklyn on 22 Mar 1794. She was a dau of Seth Maser. In the 1800 census, David, with 2 sons and 1 dau, was living next door to his parents. By 1820, his parents seem to have left and he and Ruth had 4 sons and 2 or 3 daus. In the 1830 census, Ruth was missing and had app d. Living with David was one son and the son's wife and a small dau. Next door was a son Elijah.

David's will, signed in H on 29 Oct 1844, names his wife, Ruth, and 2 sons and 2 daus, the husbands of the latter and one granddau. The 4 ch named were -

- ::1. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1795
- ::2. ELIJAH SOUTHARD (6), b. 12 Aug 1800
- ::3. FLOYD SOUTHARD (6), b. 1808
- ::4. MARGARET (or PEGGY) SOUTHARD (6), b. 1810-12

- ::3. FLOYD SOUTHARD (6), s. of David (5), Caleb (4), Solomon (3), John (2), b. 1808, m. PHEBE R. _____, b. 1807. Rather strangely, Floyd appears in only the 1850 census for H although the oldest child listed was

b. in 1831. It may be that he had previously been in N.Y.C. There was a "Floyd Southard, shoemaker" and later "cartman" in N.Y.C. directories from 1839 to 1852. Listed in the 1850 census at H were these 7 ch -

- ...1. CAROLINE SOUTHARD (7), b. 1831
- ...2. FLOYD SOUTHARD (7), b. 1838
- ...3. PHEBE R. SOUTHARD (7), b. 1840
- ...4. DAVID L. SOUTHARD (7), b. 1843
- ...5. SUSAN E. SOUTHARD (7), b. 1845
- ...6. WINFIELD S. SOUTHARD (7), 1847
- ...7. MARY E. SOUTHARD (7), b. Mar 1850

NOTE - The ch, Mary, was only 3 mos old during the 1850 census so there may well have been others later. Also there is a large gap between Caroline and Floyd, Jr. Next door with a Samuel Southard "bayman" (b. 1825) and his wife Amelia (b. 1827) were two Southards who were rather obviously not their ch. One was Timothy Southard (b. 1834) and the other was Alfred Southard (b. 1840). Possibly they were sons of Floyd and Phebe. Samuel and Amelia are as yet unknown. They may have been distantly related.

...4. MARGARET (or PEGGY) SOUTHARD (6), b. 1810-12, Dau of David (5), Caleb (4), Solomon (3), John (2), She was named in the will of her Aunt Elizabeth (Southard) Pettit, signed in 1835. App not m. then Nothing more known.

...6. CALEB SOUTHARD (5), b. perhaps 1773. Bapt at St. G's in H on 29 July 1776 as "son of Caleb and Margaret Southard". He does not appear as a family head in any census for H and no other record found. Suspect he d.y.

...7. AMY SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1778. A note in the Sprague Bible, mentioned earlier, says she m. Elijah Pettit. This seems unlikely because his will of 1828/31 names the older sister, Elizabeth, as his wife. Also Elizabeth's will of 1835/9 describes her as "widow of Elijah Pettit, late of town of Hempstead". Nothing more known.

...2. PHEBE SOUTHARD (4), Dau Solomon (3), John (2), b.

abt 1727, m. THOMAS LANSINGTON, Jr. at St. G's Ch in Hempstead on 31 Oct 1743.

3. ANNANIAS SOUTHARD (4), s. of Solomon (3), John (2), b. abt 1728. There are various references to this Annanias Southard in the Town Records of H 1753 and 1772. Most were concerned with land, or other locations, such as "the road that goes by Annanias Southard's. No records; or other evidence found to indicate that he ever married. Possibly d. around 1772.

4. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (4), s. Solomon (3), John (2), Thomas (1). b. 1728/9, d. before 1800. m. JANE COMBES, dau of Coleman and Elizabeth Combes of H. They were m. at St. G's Ch on 28 Mar 1755. She d. after 1820 at abt 85 years. Solomon signed the "L.I. Declaration of 1776" and appeared in the 1790 census with 4 sons "16 and over" and 1 dau. (Other older daus had probably married and left.) Six sons are actually indicated by the census data and other evidence -

1. AMOS SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1760	p. 27
2. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1762	27
3. ISAAC SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1765	28
4. MORRIS SOUTHARD (5), b. 1773	33
5. HENRY SOUTHARD (5), b. 1776	38
6. JOSEPH SOUTHARD (5), b. 1778	40

Further details re each of the above are included between successive single dotted and dashed lines below.

1. AMOS SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1760, d. prob 1810/15. Unmarried. In 1787, Amos cosigned a note for his brother Isaac (5), the original of which is still in the hands of a Southard descendant, Albert Waring of (SEE P. 32) N. Bellmore, L. I. His widowed mother, Jane (Combes) Southard was living with him in the 1800 census and apparently took over the position of "household head" in the 1810 census when Amos was prob very ill. Amos may have d. not long after this and in 1820 Jane was living with her son Isaac (5).

2. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (5), s. of Solomon (4), (3), John (2), b. abt 1762, m. ESTHER MILLER, dau of Cornelius Miller of H., who was among the signers of the "L.I. Declaration". His dau, Esther, is identified as Solomon's wife in his will of 1812/13. In the 1800 he appears as "Solomon, Jr." Twere then 4 sons "under 10" and 3 females, "10 and under 16", but very little is yet known about the family. One probable son was -

::1. CORNELIUS SOUTHARD (6), b. 1793/4. He was the only L.I. Southard who enlisted in the "Corps of Sea Fencibles on L. I. Sound during the War of 1812. (See "Refugees of 1776 from L. I. to Conn." (1913) by F. G. Mather, p. 224.

::3. ISAAC SOUTHARD (5), s. of Solomon (4), (3), John (2), b. abt 1765, d. 1840/50. m. RACHEL _____, probAfter 1790 because he was not in that census. In 1800 he was listed with 2 ch. Other reports indicate a total of 4 sons and 5 daus. One son, Isaac (6), is identified in early census reports and a dau, Charity (6), is reported by a descendant (A. Waring of N. Bellmore, L.I.) Two other sons are indicated by various clues. These 4 ch were -

::1. ISAAC SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1795
::2. CHARITY SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1798
::3. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (6), b. 1808
::4. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (6), b. 1810/12

Further detail re each of the above is included between single and dotted lines below.

::1. ISAAC SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1795. Was last in the 1840 census for Hempstead and apparently widowed. Wife's name unknown. There are indications of 3 sons -

:::1. SAMUEL BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (7); b. 9 July 1820
:::2. JOHN SOUTHARD (7), b. 1824/5
:::3. ISAAC SOUTHARD (7), b. 1833.

:::1. SAMUEL BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (7), "farmer of Hempstead", b. 9 July 1820 on farm of John J. Powell in Westbury, L.I. (abt 6 mi NNE of old Hempstead Village), d. after 1880. There appears to be some uncertainty concerning Samuel's marital relationships. Family records name only one mother of the 10 known children. She was PHEBE M. THOMSON, b. 2 Oct 1841 at Spiten Level (?), N.J. (not located). But census records and a news report seem to indicate two other wives. Census reports of 1870 and 1880 for the Hempstead area, include all the children listed in the family record plus one more. These census reports both name the wife of Samuel B. as "Elizabeth Southard". But further complication is added by an announcement in the newspaper, Hempstead Inquirer (See Long Island Forum, Feb. 1973, p. 25) that "Samuel B. Southard married Phebe Ann Southard at New bridge on 22 June 1866". That the bride's last name appears as "Southard" could mean she was either a Southard widow, or a distant relative. Sincerthere was no other Samuel B. on Long Island around this time, it seems highly unlikely the groom was other than the one under discussion.

So Samuel B. Southard (?) could have been m. three times, 1st to Phebe M. Thomson, 2nd to Phebe Ann Southard and 3rd to Elizabeth . Or there may be some other explanation. Further research will be needed to provide the answer. The 10 ch listed in the census reports of 1870 and 1880 were -

- 1. ISSAC SOUTHARD (8), b. 1855
- 2. SAMUEL B. SOUTHARD, Jr., b. 1857
- 3. PHEBE M. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1858
- 4. BENJAMIN F. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1862
- 5. WILLIAM H. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1864

- 9. MARY E. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1875
- 10. LILLIE V. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1877.

Further details re each of the above are included between successive single and double-spaced-dotted lines below.

- 1. ISAAC SOUTHARD (8), b. 23 Dec 1855; Acc to one source, he d. in 1920's, App unmarried.

- 2. SAMUEL B. SOUTHARD, Jr. (8), b. 1857; d. "abt 1910" acc to one report. Not in family list, but in 1870 census was one of the ch and shown as "13 yrs" and "Attending school". The Hempstead Inquirer reported that "Samuel B. Southard of Hempstead was married there on 29 Apr 1890 to Adeline Thurston of that place". It seems rather certain this was Samuel B., Jr., then 33.

NOTE - Following below are the three assumed children of Solomon (4) and Jane (Combes) Southard. They are MORRIS (b. 1773), HENRY (b. 1776) and JOSEPH (b. 1778). The evidence that they were brothers is convincing, but it is less certain they were sons of Solomon and Jane. The assumption they were sons of Solomon (4) is based largely on the fact that early census reports show 3 sons within this age range so that the 3 fit the requirements. - RKP

..1. HENRY SOUTHARD, Jr. (6), b. 1800/10, Maybe d. 1840/50. During the 1840 census this Henry was living near his father. He was m. and had 4 sons, 3 born 1835-40 and 1 b. 1830-35. But he does not appear in later census reports and the assumption is that he died, or moved away from L. I. It is possible he moved to N.Y.C. where a Henry Southard appears in city directories from 1846 to 1867. Another possibility is that he may have m. Elizabeth Hewlett. After Henry disappeared from the Hempstead census reports 1840-50, an Elizabeth Southard (b. 1803) appeared as living with a brother Richard Hewlett in the 1850 census for Hempstead. The 2nd son of Henry (5) and Jerusha Southard could have gotten his unusual given name "Hewlett" from this family.

..2. HEWLETT SOUTHARD (6), s. of Henry (5) and Jerusha, b. 1814/19, d. 1891. He was a "bayman" or "fisherman" of Freeport, where Henry (5) lived. In the census of 1820 Henry (5) was shown with one son b. 1815-20. This and the fact that there was apparently no other Southard of Freeport b. within this range seems to confirm the conclusion that he was the 2nd son of Henry (5) and Jerusha (Spragg) Southard.

A Sealey M. Southard of Freeport, L.I., wrote recently that his Southard great-grandfather was Hewlett Southard who d. in 1891 and he named and dated later generations of this family. What follows is based on the available census data and information provided by the Sealey M. Southard now living in Freeport.

But in 1880 there was a William B. Southard, b. 1823 living in Freeport where he was "boarding" with the family of Martin Smith. The census showed him as "married", but his wife was not listed and no children were named.

114. COLEMAN SOUTHARD (6), the youngest s. of Henry (5) and Jerusha, b. 1826. Like William, he appeared in the 1850 census with his parents. He did not reappear in any later census reports for L.I. and the name does not appear in any other records the writer has seen.

NOTE - Use of the given name "Coleman" in the Southard family occurred first after Jane Combes, dau of Coleman Combes, m. Solomon Southard (4), s. of Solomon (3), John (2), around 1760 to 65. As far as is known, use of the name only occurred among descendants of Solomon (4), which was one of several reasons for concluding that Henry (5) (b. 1776) was a son of Solomon (4) and Jane (Combes) Southard. - RKP

6. MARY SOUTHARD (2), dau of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard, b. abt 1666, m. THOMAS MARTIN. Early records indicate that the Martin and Spragg farms adjoined in Hempstead and that one of the sons of Mary (2) and Thomas Martin became a doctor. In the census of 1698 Thomas and Mary were listed with 3 ch. -

- .1. ELIZABETH MARTIN (3), b. maybe 1694
- .2. THOMAS MARTIN (3), b. maybe 1695/6
- .3. ABRAHAM MARTIN (3), b. maybe 1697/8

7. ABRAHAM SOUTHARD (2), s. of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard, b. abt 1667, d. 1725/7 in Hempstead. His will did not mention a wife or children and there is no evidence elsewhere to indicate that he ever married.

Abraham (2) lived near his younger brother, Isaac (2) on about 37 acres of the old Southard homestead that, on orders of the Dutch Court, the older brother, Thomas (2) had (reluctantly) deeded to him in 1725. Abraham (2) is the only child of Thomas (1) and Annica who was not listed in the Hempstead census of 1698. Possibly he was away at the time, because his name does appear in the Town Records before and after this date.

The will of Abraham (2), signed 3 Mar 1725/6 and proved on 15 Mar 1727, is brief, but important genealogically, since it determines rather clearly, the ancestral line of the Abraham Southard who moved to northern New Jersey during the 1750's and was progenitor of a family that was prominent in the N. J. State and in Federal politics.

NOTE - Teunis Bergen's "Early Settlers of Kings County" (on L.I., N.Y.) p. 269 called the Abraham who moved to Bernardstown, N.J. a "son of Thomas Southard, Jr." (i.e. Thomas (2)) and unfortunately this statement seems to have been copied in many later references. - RKP

The will of Abraham (2) reads, in part, "I leave to my brother Isaac's son Abraham, my dwelling house and the land adjoining, and all my lands in Hempstead." The Town Records mention only one Abraham Southard in Hempstead and all reference to the Abraham (3), son of Isaac (2) stopped after this Abraham left Hempstead and is known to have appeared in Bernardstown, N.J.

Isaac (2) was named admin of the above will and among the witnesses were Caleb Carman, who m. Mary Southard (3), dau of John (2) and also Benjamin Bedell, who was a son of Abraham (2)'s sister, Sarah (2).

8. UNICE SOUTHARD (2), b. around 1670, m. GORG (or GEORGE) FOWLER. They were m. before 7 Oct 1690 because on this date George signed a receipt for 23 pounds awarded by the Courts to his wife Unice, as her share in the monetary estate of Thomas Southard (1). They appeared as a family in the 1698 census with only 1 ch. -

.1. GORG (Later GEORGE) FOWLER (3), b. maybe 1695. In his will signed 19 June 1771 and proved 19 Feb 1783, George Fowler (3) mentions, "my father GEORGE FOWLER"
"my wife PHEBE"
"my son FELIX"
"my daughter, PHEBE RHODES"
"my three granddaughters, MARGARET, RACHEL and MARY VALENTINE"

9. ISAAC SOUTHARD (2), b. maybe 1675. m. GRACE _____. In the 1698 census, they were apparently newly married since there were no children. Also Isaac's widowed mother was with them and in the census listing as head of the household.

On 6 Feb 1732 a Jonathan Pine "of Elizabeth Town, New Jersey" signed a will that was witnessed by an Isaac and Jane Southard. This will has led to speculative explanations among Southard family researchers. One is that the witnesses were Isaac (2) in his late 50's and a 2nd wife named Jane. Another is that they were Isaac (3), s. of Isaac (2) and Grace, who would then perhaps have been 25 or 30. This theory assumes that his recently acquired wife was Jane Pine, dau of Jonathan Pine. There is little evidence to support either of these theories. Largely on the basis of relative plausibility, the 2nd theory is accepted here. It seems likely there was an Isaac (3), son of Isaac (2) and there is some evidence of this later in occurrences of the given name "Isaac" among Long Island Southards. It also seems probable there were daughters among the children of Isaac (2) and Grace, but none has been identified. Two sons, one known and one possible are described below -

.1. ABRAHAM SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1705 in Hempstead, d. between 18 and 31 Mar 1777 in Bernards Twp., Somerset County, N.J. He m. CORNELIA BARNES 28 Jan 1738 in St. George's Episc. Church at Hempstead. (The entry is under the surname SUTHARD, along with several other fully identified Southards.) For some 12 years following the marriage Abraham and Cornelia lived on the Hempstead property he had inherited in 1727 from his Uncle Abraham (2). Then in 1750 he sold the Hempstead holdings and took their family to New Jersey, perhaps because, like many other Long Islanders, they found the political divisions intolerable.

.2. ISAAC SOUTHARD (3), b. maybe 1710, m. JANE PINE who was dau of Jonathan Pine of Elizabeth, N.J. No record of this Isaac in N. J. after he signed his father-in-law's will in Elizabeth Town in 1732, so it is assumed he returned to Long Island.

- Ancestral Line of Micajah Southard -

One of the larger early families of Hempstead was that of MICAHAH SOUTHARD who was born on L. I. in 1772. There are apparently many descendants still living there.

A good deal is known about the oldest son of this Micajah and his children. (See "Family Record: Southard" by Merlin D. Wolcott in N.Y. G & B. Record, July 1872, p. 168) And the family on Long Island has been traced forward through the census records 1850 to 1880 inclusive. But the ancestral line of Micajah, Sr., has not yet been clearly established. Below are the writer's present opinions regarding his background.

NOTE - The Merlin D. Wolcott cited above is presently engaged in an attempt to document the ancestral line of Micajah Southard. Since time required to complete such a project is very uncertain, it would be impractical to hold up final preparation of this Southard genealogy. But if information is received concerning any new developments before the story is completed, that information will be summarized in the Appendix. - RKP

There is very little doubt but that Micajah Southard was a descendant of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard. The ancestral lines of many early Southards of Long Island have been traced and none has led to any other beginnings. The question is mainly that of how Micajah descended from these progenitors.

This writer believes the ancestral line was through John (2), a conclusion based largely on two findings. The first is that possibilities here are far more favorable than via either of the other two married brothers. A second has to do with an early tendency to perpetuate family given names. The name "John" appears frequently during the first several generations following John (2) and practically never in the other branches. Micajah's first son was named "John" and the name is common in later generations.

The writer also believes that Micajah was the oldest son of a RICHARD SOUTHARD who was born about 1750 (as estimated from early census age ranges). Some reasons for this opinion are summarized below:

1. In the 1790 census for Hempstead, the above Richard Southard was shown with one son "over 16" - so born before 1774. (Micajah was b. in 1772.)
2. Micajah married about 1798, or two years before the census of 1800. In that census the unnamed son of Richard, who was with his family in 1790, is no longer there. In 1800 Micajah first appeared as a family head and was living next door to Richard.
3. Later census reports show that the 2nd son of Micajah was named "Richard".
4. On 2 Oct 1834, the older Richard signed a will. (Queens County (N.Y.) Abstract of Wills, 1787-1850", Vol III, p. 59.) Richard's signature was witnessed by Benjamin C. Jackson and Thomas B. Jackson. (Micajah had married an Elizabeth Jackson.

Richard was a widower and in his 80's when the above will was signed. (The name of his late wife has not yet been determined.) He left his estate to a John Davenport "who is living with me now.". The indications are that this was one of those deals in which property was exchanged for final care. The will was proved on 26 May 1835 and no John Davenport was found in the Hempstead census of 1840. Perhaps by prearrangement, the young Richard, 2nd son of Micajah, had purchased the place from Davenport. At least the census report seems to indicate that young Richard was now in the residence formerly occupied by old Richard.

Accepting the above conclusions that Micajah was a descendant through John (2) and Richard does not provide a final answer. One or two links in the ancestral chain are still missing. At least three possibilities exist and, with the limited evidence available, a choice is hardly more than a guess. The three in a slight order of preference are -

John (2), Joseph (3), Richard (4), Micajah (5)
John (2), John (3), John (4), Richard (5), Micajah (6)
John (2), Solomon (3), Solomon (4), Richard (5), Micajah (6)

Largely to provide generation numbers, the first line listed above will be assumed here.

MICAJAH SOUTHARD (5), b. 14 Apr 1772, d. 8 May 1852, m. ELIZABETH JACKSON who was b. 26 Feb 1779 and d. 3 Sept 1843. (See above ref. by M. D. Wolcott.) Eight known and very probable children of Micajah (5) and Elizabeth (Jackson) Southard were -

...5. GEORGE B. SOUTHARD (7), "of Hempstead Village" (There was another George B. Southard "of Baldwins" who was abt the same age. Perhaps for this reason, the above George B. called himself "Sengel Southard" in the 1870 census. In 1880 it was again "George B." He was b. 1843, m. PHEBE UNDERHILL abt 1865. :::1. EDGAR D. SOUTHARD (8), b. 1863. In the 1880 census at 17, he was living next door with the Underhill family. Here he was called a "nephew" and his occupation was, "Apprenticed as blacksmith". :::6. MICAJAH SOUTHARD (7), b. 1844. He was living with his parents in 1850 census, but not in later reports. Perhaps d.y.

:::7. JANE SOUTHARD (7), b. 1847. Unmarried in 1880 and working as "Servant" for Barnum family near her parents' home.

::3. HENRY SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1805, App left H for N.Y.C. later. The 1830 census indicates he was m. but had no children. Prob this Henry was called "my son-in-law" by Thomas Dean in his will of 1847. So he may have m. _____ DEAN. He was not in the 1850 census for Hempstead, but the N.Y.C. directory for 1846/7 listed a "Henry Southard, Tailor". In later directories he was called "a cutter".

::4. (Female) SOUTHARD (6), b. abt 1807. She appeared with her parents in the census reports 1810 to 1840 inclusive (which only identified her as "female" within certain age brackets. She was not in the 1850 census (first to name all family members) and might have gone to N.Y.C. to live with her brother Henry and his wife.

::5. MICAJAH SOUTHARD (6), Prob b. early in 1810. From then until 1850 he lived with his parents and was app. unmarried. He does not appear in later census reports, which suggests he may have left Hempstead after his father died in 1852. (Not found in N.Y.C. directories.)

::6. PARMENAS SOUTHARD (6), b. 1812. He was in the census reports 1820 to 1850 inclusive, living with his parents. In 1860 he was ma. to RUTH SMITH and they were living alone on the old Southard farm. His older brother Richard and his family, were living next door, possibly on the farm that had originally belonged to Richard Southard (4), their grandfather. Paramus and Ruth were not in the L. I. census reports for 1870. (He could have enlisted in the War.) In 1880 Ruth appeared as a "widow", 65 and in the care of a "nurse" whose relationship was described as her "niece", Susan Smith, 19. (Actually Ruth was then only 55, if other records are right.)

::7. DAVID SOUTHARD (6), Youngest s. of Micajah (5) and Elizabeth (Jackson) Southard, b. 1814. He was in the census reports with his parents 1820 to 1850 incl. In 1850 he was living with his widowed father and unmar. After his father died in 1852, David seems to have left Hempstead. Nothing more known.

::8. JANE SOUTHARD (6), Last known child of Micajah (5) and Elizabeth (Jackson) Southard, b. 1815. She was in census reports with her parents from 1820 to 1850 incl. She was not in the census reports as a Southard after 1850. Presumably married.

- Tracing the Southards Who Stayed on Long Island -

Difficulties in tracing ancestral lines of Long Island Southards occur over roughly 100 years, from 1750 to 1850. Before this, town and church records and other conventional sources seem adequate. But around 1750, families started to move away and sources of information began to deteriorate. The latter was probably due to growing political unrest. Conditions became worse during the War years and immediately following when some of the families returned.

One of the best indications of Southard families still on Long Island near the beginning of the War was the so-called "Long Island Declaration of 1776". This was really a document sent by Long Islanders to the American Continental Congress (at their insistence) that said, "We sincerely promise - - - we will never take up arms against the Americans and we will not, in any way, assist the British Troops in the present conflict." According to Frederic G. Mather, in his "Refugees of 1776 from Long Island to Connecticut", very few who stayed on the Island refused to sign. And among about 450 nature members of the community who did sign, there were six "Southards" and many others related by marriage.

After the War was over the first federal census of 1790 provided another list of Southard family heads with other s included as males "over" or "under" 16 yrs. Females were numbered without age distinction. At 10-year intervals, to and including 1840, only family heads were named, but the age catagories of both males and females was progressively narrowed.

for the first time, in 1850 all members of families were named and ages listed. This detail continued in 1860, 1870 and 1880. So for the years 1850-1880 inclusive it is relatively easy to trace family lines for those who retain the surname. If daughters marry and leave, it is necessary to determine their married names from other sources to carry on with the census method.

The following page includes a chart based on the L.I. Declaration data and successive census reports to 1850 for Southard family heads in the Hempstead area. Letters at the left ends of lines represent given nanes of Southards who were family heads and the full names are shown below. When two or three have the same given name, primes and double primes are used with the letters. Where lines first appear at the left, indicates first appearance as a family head. Where they are discontinued it means they may have moved away, or died.

At the left edge of the chart are the six Southards who signed the "L.I. Declaration" in 1776. All but Abel appeared in the following Hempstead census for 1790.

As mentioned above, 1850 was the first census that named all those living in the household and gave their ages. This made it possible to approximate birth years (Census year minus age). Such birth dates for Southards heading families during the 1850 census appear on page 54.

END of Part I - Southards of Long Island

Part II - Southards of Dutchess County, N.Y.

The early Southards of Dutchess County, N. Y. were apparently all descendants in one branch of the family, namely, that headed by Thomas (2) and Frances (Champion) Southard. Thomas (2) was the oldest son and the move about 100 miles up the Hudson River seems to have resulted from a squabble over division of the old Southard estate after Thomas (1) died without a will. The Dutch Court ordered equal division of the money left by Thomas (1), amounting to some 80 pounds, among all the children. But, as was apparently usual then, it awarded all of the more important real property to Thomas (2) as the oldest and now head of the family, or the "heir-at-law". The assumption was that he would divide the holdings among all the sons in an equitable way. However, as was explained earlier, Thomas (2) seems to have found it difficult to part with most of the inheritance and his brothers finally petitioned the Court to supervise the division. In the end, the Court ordered an apportionment that caused a serious break in family ties. Thomas (2) and Frances and a number of their children and grandchildren left Long Island and settled up the Hudson near the Dutch community of Fishkill, N.Y. Thomas (2) probably made the move around 1730, or even some earlier, and his sons, then grown and married, seem to have followed later. Some of the daughters went along and others, who were married, stayed on Long Island.

The progenitor of Dutchess County Southards was -

2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (2), the 2nd ch, but oldest son of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard. According to notes left by the late H. F. Seversmith, "he died 10 Mar 1740 at 80 yrs" in East Fishkill, N.Y. This would make his birth year 1660, which agrees with estimates based on other data. He m. FRANCES CHAMPION who, acc to the Seversmith notes, "died 11 Apr 1757 at 96 in E. Fishkill. (This would make her birth year 1661.) The notes say, "Both were buried in a Southard Cemetery." (No reference to the source of this information appears in the notes. However, Seversmith was a serious researcher and no reason has been found to doubt the authenticity of this information. Possibly it came from uncataloged headstone inscriptions for some old cemetery in the E. Fishkill area. According to Harold Totten, a Southard descendant who lives near Fishkill, some headstone inscriptions from old cemeteries of that area have been recorded selectively in the past, but most of these were not published. Now the majority of these cemeteries no longer exist, (one is under a supermarket parking space), or are small and overgrown plots that are not on maps. - RKP)

Thomas (2) m. Frances about 1685. It is believed she was the oldest dau of John and Sarah Champion who lived near the Southards on L. I. In the special census for Hempstead in 1698, the Champions were listed with eight children.

The last clear evidence that Thomas (2) was still on Long Island seems to be in a deed he signed on 29 Mar 1725, transferring land to his brother Abraham (2). This was only a few months before Abraham (2) died. It could be that the move to Dutchess County occurred shortly after this transaction.

In the 1698 census, Thomas (2) and Frances appear with a family made up of two daughters and a son (Thomas (3)). Four additional sons are identified otherwise and one more daughter. The 8 ch of Thomas (2) and Frances (Champion) Southard were -

- .1. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (3); In the 1698 census. Maybe b. abt 1688. Nothing more known.
- .2. HANNAH SOUTHARD (3), In 1698 census. Maybe b. abt 1690. Nothing more known.
- .3. THOMAS SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1695
- .4. SAMUEL SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1700
- .5. HENRY SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1702
- .6. RICHARD SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1704
- .7. ZEBULON SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1706/8
- .8. JANE SOUTHARD (3), b. maybe 1715

Further known details concerning all of the above, excepting the first two daughters, are included between successive double and broken lines below.

.3. THOMAS SOUTHARD (3), b. abt 1695, or shortly before the Hempstead census of 1698 was taken. He was alive in 1763, when the Hempstead Town Records show land patent rights awarded "to Thomas Southard -- - and to Thomas Southard, Junor". The date and other circumstances would make these two, Thomas (3) and his son, Thomas (4). So he was married, although no record has been found. There are also indications of a daughter. The 2 known and probable ch. were -

- :1. THOMAS SOUTHARD (4), (Identified in the Town Records)
 - :2. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (4), She m. COLEMAN COMBES in St. G's Ch at H on 11 May 1734.
- =====

.4. SAMUEL SOUTHARD (3), s. of Thomas (2), (1), Prob b. abt 1700 in H.; d. there 1763/4 and left will. Married MARY (or MARGARET) STILLWELL, dau of Nicholas and Elizabeth (Cornell) Stillwell of Jamaica, N.Y. (See "The Stillwell Fan. of Amer." by Wm. H. Stillwell (1883), p. 101 etc.) Baptisnal records of St. G's Ch. in Hempstead name 4 of their ch and Samuel's will names 2 others. The 6 ch in estimated order of birth were -

:1. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (4), b. 1730. Bapt at St. G's in H on 16 Sept 1738. She may have died before 1763 because she was not mentioned in her father's will of that date and no record of a marriage has been found.

:2. SAMUEL SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1732. Bapt with above. He was app living in H when his father's will was signed in 1763, but he did not sign the Petition or Declaration of 1776 on Long Island, or appear in the 1790 census for N.Y. But the 1790 census for Stratford Town, Fairfield County, Conn. (near Bridgeport) listed a Samuel and a William SOUTHARD as family heads and other evidence indicates these were Samuel (4) and his younger brother, William (4). In that census Samuel had 3 sons "16 yrs and over", 1 son "under 16 yrs" and a daughter. Quite probably there were other children who had married and left (No effort has been made to trace Southards in Conn. In the 1790 census there were 12 families of southWARDS scattered over the eastern part of the state. Only a few of the given names, such as John, Joseph, Samuel and William, appear among the Southards of Long Island. It is assumed that these families came from Massachusetts and were unrelated to the southARDS near Bridgeport. 2 ch. known -

..1. ELISABET SOUTHARD (5), Bapt at St G's 13 June 1756

..2. MARGARET SOUTHARD (5), Bapt at St. G's 6 Sept 1758

:3. THOMAS SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1734, Bapt as above. n. DOROTHY GOLDER 16 Nov 1760 at St. G's in H. He signed the L. I. Declaration of 1776. There are indications that this Thomas married a 2nd time during the late 1770's, but the wife's name is not known. He and his brother Henry were the only sons in this family to appear on L.I. after the Rev. War. Both were listed in the 1790 census there. Only two probable sons of Thomas (4) (possibly by the 2nd wife) are known -

..1. JAMES SOUTHARD (5), b. 1780. He settled near Oyster Bay, L. I. and was discussed in Part I.

..2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (5), b. 1781/6. He first lived near Jamaica and later moved to Baldwins Harbor, L. I. (Also discussed in Part I)

:4. MARY SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1738, Bapt alone at St. G's with older children. n. HENRY MOTT, Jr. 28 Feb 1753 st St.G's.

Henry died 1768; and Mary married (2) Garret Burtis and removed to Dutchess Co. See top of next page for 4 sons.

Henry Mott and Mary Southard had 4 sons:

1. William married Lutetia Losee, moved to Verbank, Dutchess Co and died 1799.
2. Henry and 3. James of whom nothing is known.
4. Samuel: born 1768, married Meribeth Richetson - 58 - and died in Durham, Greene Co., 1842.

:5. JAMES SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1738, Bapt alone at St G's on 28 Feb 1753. n. MARY CLOWES on 8 Oct 1763. He signed the L. I. Declaration of 1776 and was in census reports for H. in 1790, 1800 and 1810. Census data shows there was 1 son and probably several daughters.

:6. WILLIAM SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1740. His father's will calls him "ny youngest son". Like his older brother, Samuel (4), he did not sign the Declaration of L.I. in 1776, or appear in the 1790 census for N.Y. So, as was explained under Samuel (4), it is assumed he went to Conn. The 1790 census for Stratford Town, Connecticut showed William and his wife with no children.

NOTE - Early death records in New Jersey identify a few SouthARDS who were born in Conn. (one at New Haven) and later moved to that state. (See "Part IV - Southards of Southern N.J.")

.5. HENRY SOUTHARD (3), s. of Thomas (2),(1). b. abt 1702/5. Prob d. after 1763. n. PHEBE TOTTEN in St. G's Ch. at Hempstead on 14 May 1730. She was a dau of Benjamin and Rebecca (Springsteen) Totten of Hempstead and Fishkill, N.Y. (The Tottens were an early L.I. family. In the 1698 census for Hempstead, Benjamin Totten appears as the 3rd s. of Richard and Elizabeth Totten.) Land records indicate that Henry and Phebe lived in Hempstead until the middle 1750's. After that such descriptions as, "land adjacent to where Henry Southard now lives" cease. Fishkill tax records show that Henry paid taxes there from 1753 to 1763. Then Henry and Phebe seem to have left Fishkill and nothing more is known. (Much of the information concerning children of Henry and Phebe came from a Totten descendant, Harold Totten, of Hobart (near Fishkill), N.Y. There were at least 7 ch. -

:1. THOMAS SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1735, n. HANNAH CARMAN on 25 Oct 1758. She was a dau of Adam Carman who had a farm in H. adjacent to that of Richard (3). 2 ch. -

..:1. THOMAS SOUTHARD (5), Bapt 18 Mar 1759 "in Fishkill" and recorded at St. G's in Hempstead.

..:2. JANE SOUTHARD (5), Bapt 2 Nov 1760 in F. and rec. at St. G's in H.

:2. HENRY SOUTHARD, Jr. (4), b. abt 1734. The will of John Totten of Fishkill, a bro of Phebe, signed July 1773, mentions "four children of ny sister" as Thomas, Isaac and David Southard and Lovina Whitman. That Henry, Jr. (4) was not included could mean he had died previously, or was out of favor, politically, or otherwise. At any rate Henry, Jr. (4) seems to have d. before 1790 when he failed to appear in any N. Y. census report. He n. ANNE _____ abt 1755. According to St. G's records two sh. of Henry and Anne Southard were bapt "at Fishkill" on 2 Nov 1760. (Until abt 1767, when Trinity Church was built at Fishkill, baptisms were performed there by visiting clergymen from St. G's Ch. in Hempstead and the records were kept in H.) No Henry Southard appeared in the 1790 or 1800 census for Dutchess County, but in the 1790 census an "Anne Southard" was listed as a family head in Fishkill. Presumably she was Henry's widow. The family included 1 son "16 or over", 1 son "under 16" and 3 daughters. Their names are not known. The 2 ch bapt at F. were -

- ..1. PHEBE SOUTHARD (5), Bapt 1760
- ..2. ANNE SOUTHARD (5), Bapt with her sister.

- ..3. JONAS SOUTHARD (5), b. maybe 1771. He was not in the 1790 census for Dutchess County as a family head (prob unmar.), but he was in the 1800 census. And he was mentioned in his father's will of 1802 without reference to a wife or ch.

NOTE - In the 1800 census for Dutchess County there was a family head named "Johannas Southard", but he and his wife were born "before 1756". In this family, there were apparently 2 sons b. 1791-1800 and a dau b. 1756-75. Johannas has not been identified - RKF

:6. REBECCA SOUTHARD (4), Dau of Henry (3), Thomas (2),(1)
b. abt 1740, m. at abt 16 in Jan 1756 at Rumbout, Dutchess County (near Fishkill) to JOHN CHURCHILL, a widower with several children. (Rebecca does not appear in all lists of Henry and Phoebe's children, but the Seversmith Notes contain some rather convincing arguments that she was their daughter. This conclusion was reached on the basis of 1st name relationships, dates and lack of evidence suggesting any other Southard connection - RKP) The name of John Churchill's 1st wife was Hannah _____. Those of the several children by this 1st marriage are not known. Nine children by Rebecca were as follows -

- ..1. HANNAH CHURCHILL (5), b. abt 1758. Acc to S., this Hannah was prob so named to replace a dau of the 1st wife who d.y.

- ..6. HENRY CHURCHILL (5), Said to have been named after Rebecca's father.
- ..7. BENJAMIN CHURCHILL (5)

after Churchills.

:7. DAVID SOUTHARD (4), s. of Henry (3), Thomas (2),(1),

Lists 1760-1780, or in the 1790 census for that area.

.6. RICHARD SOUTHARD (3), s. of Thomas (2),(1), b. 12 June 1707 in Hempstead, d. 10 July 1797 in Fishkill. Possibly bur in "Old Cem" at Trinity Ch in Fishkill with marker showing only "RS". m. JANE SMITH on 14 Jan 1732 at St. G's in H. She was b. 12 Feb 1711, d. 13 Mar 1791.

Richard (3) and his family apparently followed the older brother, Henry (3), to Fishkill during the summer of 1759.
Along with other sons of Thomas (2), Richard (3) inherited part of the old homestead in H. His inheritance consisted of about 30 acres where he and Jane lived until April of 1759.
The Town Records show that on 5 Apr 1759 the 30 acres was sold "for 500 pounds lawful money of New York". Richard (3) signed the deed and Jane made her mark. Reason for the decision to move undoubtedly had to do with the political differences around Hempstead and the decline in respect for religion.
Reports of that period called Long Island, "the seat of infidelity", and it was said that "the clergy were everywhere threatened and reviled". Many considered it "a place unfit to raise a family". There are indications that Richard (3) was among these.

The history of Trinity Church in Fishkill shows that Richard Southard (3) took an active part in religious affairs there. He and a James Duncan are called "the original trustees" of the first Episc Church built there in 1767 and in Which Richard (3) was active until he died. (See "Founding of Episc Ch., Fishkill, N.Y." by H. O. Ladd (1894))

Richard (3) d. at over 90 and his will, signed in 1795, shows that all his 5 sons had died previously. The will was signed on 18 May 1795 and recorded on 9 Sept 1797. It names all of the sons, two of the widows and apparently all of the then living grandchildren. The first two children; "Daniel and Zebulon, sons of Richard and Jane SUTHARD" were bapt in St. G's ch at Hempstead on 7 June 1739. There was also a dau, Jane bapt there on 3 July 1738. She presumably died before her father signed his will. The 6 ch identified were, in estimated order of birth -

1. DANIEL SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1734/6
2. ZEBULON SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1736
3. RICHARD SOUTHARD (4), b. 1739
4. JANE SOUTHARD (4), b. 1740/41
5. THOMAS SOUTHARD (4)
6. GILBERT SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1742

NOTE - Although not named in the will of Richard (3), there may have been another child - a daughter named ELEANOR who was prob b. abt 1740 and m. ANDREW MYER. Her name appears in "N.Y. Mar Prev to 1748" by G. J. Tucker. Here her marriage is listed along with those of Daniel, Zebulon, Thomas and Gilbert, sons of Richard (3). And their surnames, as well as her's, were spelled, "SouthERD". - RKP

NOTE - Copies of old records from "Unpublished Cem., Church, Town and Misc. Records" compiled by Daus of Amer. Rev. of N. Y. State, Vol 188 (1949) and sent to me by Mrs. Alvin Behr of Carmel, N.Y., provide some information concerning Zebulon Z. Southard. They include his death date and name as "his only heirs" a wife CATHARINE and four Southards "all of Fishkill". The 4 are called, "brothers and sister" in related documents, but it is not said explicitly that they were children of Zebulon and Catharine. However, their ages and the circumstances suggest they were and they are taken as such here. With another identified elsewhere, they are listed below -

Nine children of Richard (4) and Deborah are listed in the Seversmith Notes in the following (questionable) order -

..1. JOHN R. SOUTHARD (5), bapt 24 Oct 1759 with his sister Jane "in Fishkill", acc to the records of St. Georges in Hempstead. He m. ELIZABETH GREEN on 24 Sept 1789.

..7. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (5), Called "deceased in her grandfather's will of 1795. There is one report that she married James Vallance on 17 Nov 1782.

..8. GEORGE SOUTHARD (5)

..9. SAMUEL SOUTHARD (5) (See page V of Appendix.)

:4. JANE SOUTHARD (4), dau of Richard (3), Thomas (2), (1), b. 1740/41, d. 16 June 1780. Since not mentioned in her father's will, signed 15 years after her death, it seems likely she had no surviving children and may not have married.

:5. THOMAS SOUTHARD (4), b. 21 Jan 1741, d. 4 June 1794, m. MARTHA _____ who was b. 16 Oct 1754, d. 10 Apr 1836. She was mentioned in the will of Richard (3) and was in the 1790 and 1800 census reports for Fishkill as the family head. In the 1790 report there were apparently 4 sons and 2 daus, but only 5 ch are known and listed in the Seversmith-Eardeley Notes. These are -

..1. DANIEL SOUTHARD (5), b. 1776, d. 15 Nov 1846, m. MARGARET JONES on 19 Dec 1798. She d. 31 Dec 1830

..2. THOMAS SOUTHARD (5), b. 1779, d. 1811, m. HANNAH JONES on 21 June 1800. She was a dau of Zephar Jones and was b. 28 Nov 1779, d. 7 Oct 1850.

..3. GILBERT SOUTHARD (5), b. 1781, d. 1831, m. ANNA VAN WAY, dau of Thomas Peter Van Way. m. on 8 Oct 1803

..4. JANE SOUTHARD (5), b. 1783, d. 1869, m. THORN PUDNEY, s. Cornelius and Lanah (Teachout) Pudney, on 24 Feb 1803.

..5. FRANCES SOUTHARD (5), b. 1785, d. 1853, m. BENJAMIN BURROUGHS on 21 Jan 1804. He d. 26 Feb 1838. One source reports, "They had many descendants."

..6. GILBERT SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1742. He d. intestate and on 24 June 1784, Letters of Admin were issued to his "brother Thomas". On 20 Nov 1766, he m. ANNE DUBOIS. Three ch are listed in the Seversmith-Eardeley Notes -

..1. JANE SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1770, m. 10 Jan 1793 to CHRISTIAN TERBOE.

..2. JAMIMA SOUTHARD (5), May have m. twice, 1st to ABRAHAM SCHOUTEN on 27 Apr 1795, 2nd at St. G's in H. on 2 Apr 1803 to CORNWELL ADAMS of Rockaway, L.I.

..3. GILBERT G. SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1768, m. ANN WAY in F. on 15 Nov 1803. (One source says he m. 1st Polly Conklin on 8 Aug 1790.) Made vestryman Trin. Ch. in F. 1796.

..7. ZEBULON SOUTHARD (3), s. Thomas (2),(1), b. abt 1706/8. As the 6th son of Thomas (2) and Frances, he was prob named after Zebulon, the 6th son of Jacob and Leah in the Old Testament (Genesis, 30:20). No indications that he married. Date of his death is unknown. He seems to have lived all his later life on property adjacent to that owned by his brother Richard (3) in Hempstead, before he moved to Fishkill. No evidence that Zebulon (3) ever went to F. He was not very active in town affairs. There is practically no reference to him in the Town Records except in such terms as, "next to where Zebulon Southard lives". Almost certainly there was no issue.

..8. JANE SOUTHARD (3), dau of Thomas (2),(1), b. 1710-15, d. before 1764. Prob bur in Hempstead, m. NATHAN VALENTINE, Jr., on 12 Dec 1736 in St. G's Ch. at H.

NOTE - Herbert F. Seversmith was related to the Southards via the above Jane Southard (3). In a letter of 1956, sent to Merlin D. Wolcott, another Southard desc., Seversmith wrote, "I am only interested in those Southards which stayed on Long Island, descending as I do of John (2), Joseph (3), Jane (4), wife of Nathan Valentine." Unfortunately, I do not know what evidence led Seversmith to conclude that Jane was a dau of Joseph (3). While the evidence that she was a dau of Thomas (2) is somewhat circumstantial, I have, as yet found no reason to believe she was a dau of Joseph (3). - RKP

Part III - Southards of Northern New Jersey

The progenitor of most Southards in northern New Jersey was -

1738: ABRAHAM SOUTHARD, member Queens County (NY militia) Co., Captain JACOB HICKS

ABRAHAM SOUTHARD (3), s. of Isaac (2), Thomas (1), who was b. abt 1705 in Hempstead, L. I. and d. between 18 and 31 Mar 1777 in Bernards Twp., Somerset County, N. J. This was a year when a severe smallpox epidemic caused many deaths in northern N.J. For example, records of the Presby Church in Morristown, N.J., where many Southards attended, show that during the year 1777, 205 members of that one congregation were buried.

Abraham (3) m. CORNELIA BARNES on 28 Jan 1738 in St. G's Ch in Hempstead. Cornelia was a dau of John and Hannah Barnes of Hempstead and her father's will, signed 7 Sept and proved 24 Oct in 1743, names one son and 7 daughters in this order: Cornelius, Allada, Manuris, Cornelia (who m. Abraham (3), Jane, Hannah, Deneca and Catharine (who m. Joseph Southard (3), a cousin of Abraham (3). (N.Y. Hist. Soc. "Abst. of Wills", Vol III, p. 410) The date of Cornelia's death is not known, but there are indications she died not long after her husband.

NOTE - This Barnes (or Barns) family was of Dutch ancestry. The surname was Anglicized. The Dutch names of her parents were Jan and Antie Barentse. She was bapt. in the 1st Reformed Dutch Church of Jamaica, L.I. on 12 Dec 1708. (See N.Y. G & B Soc Record, Apr 1974 (p. 94) - RKP

After Abraham (3) and Cornelia married in 1738, they lived for about 12 years on property in Hempstead that Abraham had inherited from his unmarried Uncle Abraham (2). Analysis of the Hempstead Town Records suggests they moved away in 1750. The last reference to any Abraham Southard in those Records was on 9 June 1750 when Abraham (3) signed a bond in H. The date when they settled in New Jersey appears in several references as "1750" and "1755". It is likely the former is correct. The latter seems to have come from a casual statement made years later by the son Henry about his age when the family arrived. Probably they crossed to the mouth of the Raritan River in June of 1750 and may have stayed with relatives by marriage then living in the lower Raritan Valley while Abraham looked over land for sale in the upper Raritan area by realtors with offices in Woodbridge and Piscataway. It is likely they were settled about a quarter mile west of the present Basking Ridge in Somerset County before the winter of 1750 had set in.

The will of Abraham (3), signed 18 Mar 1777 (N.J. Arch., Abst of Wills; Vol V) mentions 8 ch., but almost certainly not in the order of birth. Others may have d.y. On the basis of available evidence, estimated order of birth and birth dates are as follows:

Theodore Thayer, Colonial and Revolutionary Morris County (Morristown, NJ: Morris County Heritage Commission, 1975)

"When counterfeiting was rampant in Morris County, it was difficult to convict the perpetrators. Many of the counterfeiters were popular young men with many influential relatives and friends. Furthermore, many of the inhabitants did not look upon the crime as inimical to their interests; rather, they viewed the actions of the counterfeiters as clever and smart. In fact, to perhaps the great majority, the counterfeiters were popular heroes. They did not perceive the great harm which this form of lawbreaking could cause to a community.

In 1747, a whole ring of counterfeiters and passers of counterfeit bills were arrested and jailed. The number and good station in life of most of the men reveal the prevailing disposition toward counterfeiting. The names of the arrested were: Timothy Conner, Seth Hall, Jonathan Hathaway, John Pipes, Job Allen, Andrew Morrison, Abraham Southerd, Samuel Blackford, Sylvanus Totten, and David Brant, all of Morristown. Through the laxity of Sheriff Caleb Fairchild, all the prisoners broke jail and escaped to the homes of friends and relatives. Governor Jonathan Belcher and his Council agreed that counterfeiters could not be convicted in Morris County and proposed that henceforth they be removed from the county for trial. The Assembly, however, disagreed, and the proposal was dropped. Chief Justice Robert Hunter Morris wanted Sheriff Fairchild prosecuted for allowing the prisoners to escape but no action was taken.

It was not until the Court of Oyer and Terminer was established in Morris County in 1750, with Chief Justice Nevill presiding, that some of the counterfeiters were again arrested and brought to trial. David Brant was found guilty, fined £25, jailed for three months, and put on good behavior for seven years. Ebenezer David was fined £5, ordered to stand in the pillory one hour, jailed for six months, and put on good behavior for nine years. Jeremiah Wright received a fine of £10 for assisting the counterfeiters and was put on good behavior for seven years. Finally, Peter Salter was fined twenty shillings and put on good behavior for two years for counterfeiting pieces of eight. These sentences were light; after all, the law prescribed the death penalty for counterfeiters.

Although the punishments handed down by the Court in 1750 were light, the actions of the Court were such that counterfeiting did not again appear in Morris County for nearly twenty years."

1748 Early August [Scott]

The following men voluntarily surrendered themselves to the Sheriff of Essex County, confessed their activities and ~~were released~~ on bond at the August session of the court. James Bruff, Aaron Miller, John Radley, Andrew Miller, Daniel Clark Jr., Josiah Winans, Zorobabel North, Daniel Perine, Joseph Marsh, John Roll, John French and Richard French. It is assumed they gave the names of others because 5 days after appearing before the court (on August 12), a warrant was issued for the arrest of the men in the next entry.

1748 August 17 [Thayer][Scott]

A whole ring of counterfeiters and passers of counterfeit bills were arrested and jailed. A warrant had been issued by Judge Robert Hunter Morris to Sheriff John Kinney. The names of the arrested were: Timothy Conner, Seth Hall, Jonathan Hathaway, John Pipes, Job Allen, Andrew Morrison, Abraham Southerd, Samuel Blackford, Sylvanus Totten, David Brant, Abraham Hathaway, Jacobus Vanetta, John McNeal, Joshua Robins, Abraham Anderson, Robert Livingston, Court Timery, and Isaac Woortman.

1748 September 20 to September 25 [Scott]

Ten persons committed to the Morristown jail on or about 20th September were allowed to escape with the tacit help of Sheriff Caleb Fairchild on September 25th. The men were Timothy Conner, Seth Hall, Jonathan Hathaway, John Pipes, Job Allen, Andrew Morrison, Abraham Southerd, Samuel Blackford, Sylvanus Totten and David Brant. [It was later learned that Sheriff John Kinney had also assisted in the jail break and had in fact encouraged Hall and Morrison to escape.]

The first five of the children above were almost certainly born in Hempstead. Richard (4) may have been born either in Hempstead, or someplace in New Jersey. The last two children were born near the present Basking Ridge, N. J.

Between successive broken lines below are known details re each of the above.

:1. AMOS SOUTHARD (4), b. 1740/1, d. at about 37 years in 1777 during the smallpox epidemic in northern N.J. No will or inventory has been found and place of burial is unknown. He m. JANE SIMPSON (or SIMSON) in the Morristown (N.J.) Presby. ch. on 6 June 1762. No record found of any ch.

:2. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (4), b. 1742/3, d. (?) The original of her father's will apparently does not exist, but in the abstract that appears in N.J. Archives - Wills, Vol V, p. 488, Elizabeth's married name is printed as PATTEN. So most references to the early Southards of Basking Ridge say "Elizabeth married _____ Patten." (One reference has the husband's name as _____ Potter.) This is undoubtedly a misinterpretation, since early records of the Morristown Presby. Ch. show that "Elizabeth Southard married HUGH COTTER (or POTTER) there on 3 Oct 1764. Where the name "Cotter" is handwritten in old records, it is not difficult to see how this incorrect transcription could have occurred. Incidentally, three of Elizabeth's brothers were married in the same church during the middle-to-late 1700's.

No other records of any sort have been found concerning Hugh Cotter and nothing is known about children.

3. ISAAC SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1745, d. 11 Apr 1782 at around 40 years. m. 12 Apr 1769 in Morristown, N.J. to RACHEL GOBLE, who was prob a dau, or a sister of Matthias Goble of Somerset County. Isaac (4) and Rachel lived in Bernards Town, Somerset County and he died there without a will. His widow Rachel and Isaac's brother, Henry (4), were appointed admins of the estate (689R, BM, p. 130) No definite record of any children has been found, but there is some indication of a son named Isaac. Also, in the will of a brother, Richard (4), signed over a year after Isaac (4)'s death, he left property "to the heirs, or oldest sons (plural) of my brother, Isaac Southard".

4. HENRY SOUTHARD (4), b. 7 Oct 1747 in Hempstead, L.I., d. 22 May 1842 near Basking Ridge, N.J. ("Emporium & True Amer." of Trenton, N.J., 3 June 1842, p. 3) m. 28 Mar 1771 to SARAH LEWIS, 6th ch. of Edward and Sarah (Morris) Lewis. (See "Early Lewises of Northern N.J.", Compiled by R. K. Potter, p. 66.) She was b. 17 Feb 1756 and d. 6 Jan 1831. They were bur. in "the old Church Yard", Basking Ridge.

Henry (4) served in the Rev War, in the N. J. State House of Rep. (Somerset County) for 9 years and in the U. S. Congress 1801-1811 and 1815-1821. (Somerset County Hist. Soc. Quar., Vol 6, p. 96.) One contemporary historian called him, "a plain, unpretending man of good solid sense". A descendant, Richard Lum, of Chatham, N.J. has oil portraits of Henry and Sarah, obviously painted when they were along in years. Henry, in a high-collared coat is clean-shaven, square-jawed and stern, with a thin fringe of hair across his forehead. Sarah looks somewhat uncomfortable in a large, lacy bonnet, white neckerchief and otherwise formal garb. According to one reference source, ("Centennial Address of George Washington - - " by Southard Hay, p. 29) the Rev War musket of Henry Southard was in the hands of an N.Y.C. collector around 1930.)

Military records at N. J. State Lib. in Trenton, N.J., show that Henry (4) enlisted in Aug 1776 as a private in the Somerset County Militia under Capt. Gavin McCoy. (Capt. McCoy was a distant relative on the Lewis side. - See "Early Lewises of Northern N. J." p. 47.) He served "four tours", including service in the Battles of Ash Swamp, of Short Hills and of Red Bank. In Nov 1777 he was made a "Wagoner" in the Company of Capt. Jacob Ten Eyck and in Oct 1778 he was "appointed to the post of Teamster" in Hinman's Team Brigade of the Wagonmaster General's Dept. Here he "was employed in carting Commissary Stores from Kings Ferry". He seems to have operated a rather sizeable carting concession for which he received compensation. The records show that Joseph Lewis, the Quartermaster at Morristown, N.J. (a relative by marriage) issued certificates to him totalling $13,763.00 "for carting".

During the special N.J. Census of Rev War Pensioners in 1840, Henry Southard (4), at 92, was living with his youngest daughter Sarah, wife of Dr. Samuel S. Doty. Henry's will (2835R) signed in 1842, names his own surviving children and those of his son Lott.

- ..13. FINLEY SOUTHARD (5), b. 2 Dec 1797, d.y. 1800

Seven children of Henry (5) and Sarah (Lewis) Southard died at 11 years or under. Known details concerning the six who lived to maturity are included between successive, single, dash-and-dotted lines below.

..3. LOTT SOUTHARD (5), b. 7 Apr 1776 at Long Hill, N.J., d. 15 (or 16) Dec 1854 in Basking Ridge. (There is a days disagreement between Church and State records concerning the d. date) m. on 30 Dec 1795 to SARAH RICKEY, dau of Col. Israel and Nancy Rickey. Sarah was b. 18 Jan 1780 and d. 31 Dec 1851. All four of the above were bur in the "Old Cem" at Basking Ridge. One ref. says there were 13 ch., but, if so, 4 must have d.y. Except for the 1st, who had d. previously, the 9 ch below are mentioned in their Grandfather Henry Southard's will of 1842.

NOTE - Nettie Allen, who, as was explained in the early pages, collected much information re Basking Ridge, N.J. families, including the Southards, was a great-grand dau of Sarah Rickey's brother, John. Miss Allen's records are on file in the Bernards Township Library at Basking Ridge. Nettie Allen was b. 3 Mar 1871 in Basking Ridge, d. 19 June 1966 in Morristown, N.J. She was unmar. A nephew who helped with the family research during the final years was Allen Howard Connolly. He was b. 31 May

..3. LOTT SOUTHARD (5) and ..5. STEPHEN SOUTHARD (5) (per Michael J. Birkner) may have been mentally impaired. If so, the impairment was minimal for LOTT SOUTHARD and late-coming for STEPHEN SOUTHARD (see page 80) (Michael J. Birkner, Samuel L. Southard (Cranbury, NJ, Associated University Presses, 1984)

The Presbyterian Church

BASKING RIDGE, NEW JERSEY

Founded Circa 1717

A HISTORY

by

DOROTHY LOA McFADDEN
MILDRED DUNHAM VAN DYKE
EILEEN LUZ JOHNSTON

several extensive revivals of religion under Dr. Kennedy's ministry which led his church to greatly increase in numbers and strength; and that he was "very diligent in the discharge of his pastoral duties, and his labors among his own people and elsewhere were eminently successful ... His influence was by no means confined to his own congregation, but extended to the whole surrounding region."

In 1760 Dr. Kennedy received the honorary degree of A.M. from the College of New Jersey (Princeton).

The later years of his ministry were a time of agitation and tumult in Basking Ridge as in all the state and nation, for this was the period of the American Revolution. In 1775 a company of colonial soldiers drilled at the parsonage and at the church. Many members of the congregation went away to fight – 35 of them to be laid to their final rest in the old churchyard at Basking Ridge.

Tradition has it that General George Washington and his soldiers often rested under the old oak in the cemetery when they rode from their headquarters in Morristown to Pluckemin, where some of the Colonial artillery were stationed. During one of his visits he established a smallpox hospital in Basking Ridge. With another hospital in Jockey Hollow where the main army was encamped, the tribulations of our soldiers were ever before the eyes of our congregation, and they were constantly being stirred by the sound of drums and marching feet as the men passed through the village.

As a doctor, minister and teacher, Dr. Kennedy undoubtedly led a very busy and useful life during these fateful times.

He died at Basking Ridge on August 31, 1787 and is buried in our churchyard. Since Dr. Kennedy had been the rightful successor to his brother David, Earl of Cassilis in Scotland, after David's death Dr. Kennedy's son Robert went there to claim the succession. But he was unable to establish his rights against a Captain Archibald Kennedy who insisted that Dr. Kennedy had died without leaving an heir.

MINISTRY OF THE REVEREND ROBERT FINLEY, D.D., 1795-1817

This period was one of the brightest in the history of our church.

Robert Finley was born at Princeton, N.J. in 1772, son of James Finley of Scotland, who came to New Jersey in 1769 at the invitation of his friend Dr. John Witherspoon, president of the College of New Jersey (Princeton).

Robert Finley was a precocious student, commencing his study of Latin when he was eight, and entering the College of New Jersey as a freshman in his eleventh year. He graduated in 1787 in his sixteenth year and was then a teacher in the grammar school at Princeton and later at Allentown, N.J. and Charleston, S.C. Returning to Princeton he again taught in the grammar school and then became a tutor at the college. During this time, he had decided to go into the ministry and studied theology under Dr. Witherspoon. On Sept. 16, 1794 when he was still only twenty-two, he was licensed by the New Brunswick Presbytery, and came to Basking Ridge church to preach for a number of Sundays.

Our congregation – which had been without a minister for nearly eight years and had become divided and disorganized – now united in an enthusiastic call for this young minister's permanent services.

On June 17, 1795, he was ordained pastor of our church. Three years later he married Esther, daughter of Rev. James Caldwell, the most famous patriot among the New Jersey ministers during the Revolution. They had nine children, of whom four were sons – three of them graduating from the College of New Jersey and becoming ministers also. The fourth son died while he was still a seminary student. Dr. Finley's father also moved to Basking Ridge and was an elder of our church and is buried in the old churchyard.

With the beginning of Dr. Finley's ministry our records of the Session meetings also commence. We find that there were some 74 members of the church in 1795.

In 1803 a religious revival swept the country, and 127 new members were brought into the church. At this time also the first Friday evening lectures and prayer meetings were organized. These continued for many years. People in those days brought their lunches with them on Sundays and ate them under the old oak after morning worship, then attended another service afterwards. Such long days of devotion, and the very lengthy prayers and sermons of the time, did not seem to weary these devout Christians at all!

The sanctuary now became so crowded that it had to be enlarged on the north side by twenty feet. Twenty-eight pews were added downstairs and twelve in the gallery (making the total of 118 pews altogether) at a total cost of $2,619.67. The highest pew rental – for those on the right and left of the pulpit – was $14.74 a year. In 1809 the front of the meeting house was faced with brick, and poplar trees were set around the churchyard in 1811 “at a cost of one shilling apiece.”

Dr. Finley was a preacher of great earnestness and power. The story is told that when in one sermon he pictured the wrath of God as a boiling gulf toward which sinners were rapidly floating, and he shouted “Stand back! Stand back! Oh, sinners, let me push you away from this fiery deep!” the entire congregation half rose from their seats as if to avoid the danger.

By 1809 Dr. Finley's preaching had won such acclaim that he was asked to deliver the missionary sermon at the General Assembly meeting in Philadelphia. He was appointed also at that time as a delegate to the next meeting of the Assembly in Connecticut.

Together with the Rev. George S. Woodhull of Cranbury, N.J., Dr. Finley was one of the first to introduce Bible class instruction into the church. It was mainly through the influence of these two men that what we think of now as Sunday Schools were endorsed and recommended to all churches first by the Presbytery, then by the Synod of New York and New Jersey and finally by the General Assembly. Up to that time, the religious instruction of children consisted only of a recital of the catechism. It was a new idea to have young people study the actual Bible, the history of the world in its relationship to the church – and to be given practical lessons in the religious conduct of their lives. Dr. Finley tested out these ideas in his own church before presenting the plan for the Presbytery's and then the General Assembly's consideration, where they received enthusiastic approval in 1815.

He felt so strongly about the need for using the Bible in school that he even used his influence to assure it in the local academy. Apparently even in those days there were people who objected to the reading of Scripture in the classroom. After a long argument with a teacher sharing this viewpoint, Dr. Finley finally threatened to have him dismissed – and the matter was settled.

One of his most outstanding achievements in Basking Ridge was his classical school which succeeded that of Dr. Kennedy. At first only some ten students were taught by him in the parsonage, but as the enrollment grew it was found necessary to erect a building in 1809. This was always spoken of as “The Old Academy Building” and is still standing – now being used as Bernards Township Hall. This fine brick structure – a typical example of Federalist period architecture – was built partly at Dr. Finley’s expense but principally with liberal contributions from various New York City benefactors. The pupils came from Virginia, Maryland, New York City and Philadelphia as well as from New Jersey.

Dr. Finley was known as an extremely strict disciplinarian, and it is amusing to note that because of this Basking Ridge was spoken of in those days as “Botany Bay”! One particularly naughty and difficult student was finally expelled and sent by his father to naval school. He later became Commodore Stockton of Mexican War fame.

It is said that Dr. Finley’s aspect was naturally stern and commanding and that he could assume a countenance, voice and manner truly terrifying to his pupils. But he laughingly said to a friend at one time: “They will find out after all that I won’t quite kill them!”

He believed in making every moment of the day count in his students’ education and often invited one or two to accompany him on his rambles about his farm, testing the youngsters meanwhile on their ability in Latin. According to the Rev. Mr. Brown who wrote Dr. Finley’s biography, “this kind of treatment was very useful to the scholar and it attached him exceedingly to his teacher!”

Many young men who were graduated from this school were to become famous in the nation – governors, ambassadors, senators, eminent jurists --- among them William L. Dayton, Theodore Frelinghuysen, David Kirkpatrick and Samuel L. Southard. During the religious revival of 1803, the entire graduating class was converted and some nine or ten became preachers of the gospel. The school curriculum included classes in Bible study similar to those given in our church.

Again in 1816 the “Christian Herald” said that “in Baskenridge the spirit of the Lord has been poured out in copious effusions. The good work (of revival) which commenced in the academy was soon extended to the church generally ...”

During this time Dr. Finley preached not only in the church, but from house to house, sometimes traveling in snow or rain for three or four days to reach outlying homes in the mountains beyond his actual parish, driving himself to the point of exhaustion.

Wherever he spoke, all the neighbors assembled in one house. Once, when he felt the crowd would tire too soon standing up to hear him, he reached up with his own hands and took down the loose boards which formed the ceiling, setting them across chairs to make seats for more of his eager listeners. It was during such trips that he organized the Marksboro Presbyterian Church at Hardwick in Sussex County in 1814. In 1817 our church with others of the area became part of a new Presbytery of Newton.

On the national scene Dr. Finley was the prime organizer of the American Colonization Society, which sought to establish colonies of freed American Negro slaves in Africa. Dr. Finley’s belief was that as “our fathers brought them here, we are bound if possible to repair the injuries inflicted by our fathers.”

Many opposed the scheme or thought it impractical, but Dr. Finley went to Washington and conferred with President Madison, Henry Clay, John Randolph and other prominent men. His high purpose was well expressed in his presentation of the plan, in which he wrote something which we might well adopt as a national slogan for today: "Happy America, if she shall endeavor not only to rival other nations in arts and arms, but to equal and exceed them in the great cause of humanity, which has begun its never ending course."

Dr. Finley was present at the meeting on December 28, 1816 when the Society was formally organized with Judge Bushrod Washington, a favorite nephew of George Washington, as its first president. Other famous members of the Society were Abraham Lincoln, Daniel Webster, Henry Clay, Stephen A. Douglass and many others. This colonization of Africa was the beginning of the country now known as Liberia.

All of these activities brought Dr. Finley to such national attention that in 1817 he was asked to become president of the University of Georgia at Athens. It was with great reluctance that our congregation accepted his resignation. While delivering his farewell sermon, Dr. Finley was so moved that he fell upon his knees and remained there until the end.

When accepting his resignation as a trustee of the College of New Jersey – an office he had held for eleven years – the corporation unanimously voted to confer upon him the honorary D.D. degree as an expression of "their high sense of his talents, piety and usefulness."

Would that Dr. Finley had remained in Basking Ridge! His two weeks journey to Georgia was made in a sailing vessel from New York to Savannah, where he and his family and possessions were driven during fifteen days for 200 miles in a carriage – a trip which left them all ill and shaken upon arrival. They found themselves in a tiny village without even a church, with a university which owned thousands of acres of land but had only 28 students and little in the way of buildings or equipment. True to character, Dr. Finley set about immediately organizing the college courses, starting a church, and then traveled throughout Georgia to raise funds. Thoroughly exhausted, he succumbed to typhoid and biliousness and died in November of that same year.

Basking Ridge will always remember Dr. Robert Finley. His was a grave, dignified yet warm personality. As a preacher he was extraordinary, persuasive and original. In appearance he was tall, erect, with wide shoulders, a commanding brow and keen blue eyes. With his big Roman nose and prominent cheekbones, he looked the typical Scot. He made an indelible impression on our community, and it is very fitting that the street which runs past our church was named in his honor, Finley Avenue.

MINISTRY OF

THE REVEREND WILLIAM C. BROWNLEE, D.D., 1818-1825

Dr. Brownlee, like Dr. Kennedy, came from a famous old Scotch family of the nobility. He was the fourth son of the Laird of Torfoot, and was born in 1783 at the family estate which dated back to the reign of Queen Anne. He grew up in the strict discipline of the faith of the Covenanters.

He graduated from the University of Glasgow and received his Master's degree with honors there also. In 1808 he was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Stirling, Scotland.

On coming to America he was at first pastor of the Associated Church in Mount Pleasant, Pa., then in 1813 at the Associated Scotch Church in Philadelphia. In 1816 he Alfred Deutsch, Rev. Robert Snable, and this year will see the ordination of Robert Beringer. We hope that there will be many more to come from our church family.

As a matter of historical record we feel that we should tell also of some of our early members who held high state or national positions, or made some other outstanding record of public service.

Nathaniel Ayers, (1728-1806) was the grand son of John Ayers who donated land for our church in 1731. He was a member of the Provincial Congress of New Jersey from Somerset County, and later was made Justice of the Peace by the Governor and Council.

The Hon. Henry Southard, (1747-1842) was a ruling Elder of our church for over 50 years. He was a Justice of the Peace, Judge of the Court, Member of the Assembly, and Member of the House of Representatives.

His son, the Hon. Samuel L. Southard (1787-1842) was also a Member of the Assembly; Justice of the Supreme Court; a Presidential Elector; Senator from New Jersey; Secretary of the Navy in the cabinet of President Monroe; and finally Attorney General of New Jersey.

The Hon. Andrew Kirkpatrick, (1756-1831) originally studied divinity under Dr. Kennedy, but became a lawyer. He was a Member of the Assembly; Chief Justice for 21 years; member of the Legislative Council; and on the bench of the Supreme Court for 27 years. It is said that many of his decisions were among the most important ever made in the state.

The Hon. Joseph Annin, (1789-1835) was another State Senator, and Judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

The Hon. William Lewis Dayton, (1811-1864) was a State Senator; Judge in the New Jersey Supreme Court; United States Senator; Attorney General of New Jersey; and finally was appointed by President Lincoln as United States Minister to France. At his death President Lincoln wrote: "There is no man in public life for whose character I have greater admiration."

Brigadier-General George Smith Anderson, (1849-1915) was a graduate of West Point, and was active in the southwest in the wars against the Indians. At one time he taught at West Point, and at another time he served as superintendent of Yellowstone Park. He fought in the Philippines as a cavalry officer and finally retired there. In 1890 he received the Legion of Honor decoration from France.

Much as we would like to do so, space does not permit us to mention the many other members who have been outstanding in character and accomplishments, or who have given years of devoted service to our church – the faithful teachers and superintendents of the Church School, the earnest workers in the Woman's Guild – the list would take up many pages. Yet without them, our church would not be what it is today. They are our "unsung heroes."

And there was a bro., Stafford R. W. Heath who, in 1843, m. Catherine, dau of Archibald Woodruff of Newark and sister of Cephas M. Woodruff. Early Newark directories list Samuel as the head of "Southard & Collyer, Coach Smiths". After 1856 he was alone as "Coach Manufacturer" with his "home in Madison, N.J." After 1878 he no longer appeared in the Newark directories, so had presumably retired.

Two ch. of the 1st m. are named in Littell's "Genea. of Passaic Valley". (p. 180). There were no ch. by the 2nd m. and two by the 3rd. The 4 ch were -

...1. SARAH JANE SOUTHARD (7), b. 5 Mar 1833, d. 16 Aug 1882. On 15 Sept 1852 she m. CEPHAS MILES WOODRUFF of Newark, N.J. He was b. 1 Feb 1832 and d. 29 June 1882. According to one report, he and Sarah were crossing a railroad track in a carriage when it was struck by a train. He was killed instantly and she only lived some six weeks. Another version is that he was alone in the accident and that she, already in poor health, died due to the shock of his death.

NOTE- According to a desc., A. M. Woodruff (9) (See below), the father of Cephas Woodruff was Archibald Mulford Woodruff who was born in either Newark or Elizabeth, N.J. He lived in Newark most of his life and was buried there. The parents of C. W. were Parsons and Mary (Mulford) Woodruff. He was from Elizabeth and she from Long Island. "He fought in the Rev. War, was imprisoned in Newark Bay and died young from the exposure. She lived to a great age and a wet plate photograph of her survives". (This suggests she was alive during the 1850's.) Parsons' father was Seth Woodruff of Elizabeth, who also fought in the Rev War and was imprisoned. He survived, brought up the family of his deceased son Parsons and "lived to be quite an old man." The mother's name is not yet known.

(Incidentally, many Southards were taught in Basking Ridge Academy and married by the Rev. Robert Finley who was in charge there. This was presumably the source of Robert Finley Southard's given name.) From about 1840 until 1898, Robert was listed in the Newark directories, except for the period 1869-1878. His "Occupation" varied considerably. During the early years he was a "sawyer". Thereafter he was successively, "Assessor", "Clerk in Central Market", "Roofing" and finally "Engineer" According to some family notes in the "Nettie Allen Collection", he was called "Uncle Finley" and "ran errands for Dr. Lott Southard". She was a dau of Zebulin and Mary Doty, b. 1777 in Basking Ridge and d. in Madisonville, N.J. 11 Feb 1853. There are indications that Stephen was physically incapacitated later on. When his father wrote his will in 1842 he left a trust fund of $1200 to be supervised by his brothers Isaac and Samuel L. for Stephen's support "as long as he lives". But Stephen apparently signed his own will (3622 R) on 13 Feb 1855. It was probated 4 Sept 1857. There is no mention of a wife or children. Half of his estate was left to John Dayton and the other half to Amide F. Vorhees. Both were doctors and relatives. Dr. John S. Dayton m. Elizabeth Doty, dau of Dr. Samuel S. and Sarah (Southard) Doty and Dr. Amide Voorhees m. Rebecca H. Southard, dau of Isaac and Mary Wright (Doty) Southard. Stephen's will was probated in the Orphan's Court, which is further evidence of dependance. No record of ch. found.

..6. JAMES SOUTHARD (5), s. Henry (4), b. 17 Oct 1781, d. 1815 in Somerset Co., N.J., m. CATHERINE WHITENAUGHT (or KITTY WHITNACK) on 10 Dec 1810. They lived on a farm described in his father's will as containing about 52 acres in Bridgewater Township. James seems to have enlisted in the 3rd Regt of N.J. Militia during the War of 1812. The records show that a "James Southard" enlisted 7 Sept 1814 and was discharged 4 Dec 1814. (His early death in 1815 could have been the result of injuries received during this service.) After James died, his father purchased the place from his heirs and the son Lott lived there. James died without a will and the inventory of his estate (1731 R) was dated 22 July 1815 and signed by his brother Isaac Southard and Thomas Whitenack, who was prob a bro-in-law. No record of ch. has been found.

(See "Doty - Doten Fan." by E. A. Doty.) Mary was b. 12 June 1788 and d. 5 Dec 1864. Both wre bur in the Old Cen at Somerville. Isaac was often referred to as "Col. Isaac Southard" due to service in the War of 1812. (Somerset Co. Hist. Quar., Vol 7, p. 249). From 4 Mar 1831 to 3 Mar 1833 he was a member of the 22nd Congress of the U.S. as a Rep. from N.J. ::1. JAMES W. SOUTHARD (6), b. 10 Mar 1807, d. in Sept 1889, m. at least twice, 1st to ANN HENRY on 12 Apr 1832 in Somerset Co., N.J., 2nd to SARAH E. HOWELL on 16 Nov 1842 in Trenton, N.J. She was a dau of Phillip Howell of Trenton, b. 1823, d. 1898/9. Some reports include 2 other marriages, one to Maria Talmage and another to Amelia Patten. The writer has found no documentation to support these reports, but there is some circumstantial evidence. In the 1850 census for Trenton, James and Sarah were living together without children. But in the 1854 directory she appeared alone with a "daughter" LOUISA. Later directories show them still alone and with Sarah as the "Household Head". During the 1860 census Sarah's mother and a sister were living with them. In the city directories she was listed with her daughter and without James until 1899, when Louisa appeared alone after her mother died. In the directories before 1878 Sarah was listed simply as, "Sarah Southard". On that date she first appeared as, "Sarah Southard, widow". Since the records show that James died 11 years later, it might be construed that he (or she) obtained a divorce then. However, no record has been found of a divorce any time after 1850. One other possibility is that James may have been confused with another James W. Southard by the directory editors. This other James W. was also born in 1807. He was a son of Gilbert and Anna Southard and lived in Newark, N.J. for many years. This James W. died in 1875 and the next Trenton Directory was in 1878.

Whatever the explanation of events after James W. of Trenton and Sarah separated around 1852, it is not unlikely that he obtained a divorce in some other state and remarried. No ch. are known.

One report says, "She was bur at sea." (Possibly enroute to Calif.) Daniel died intestate and Letters of Admin were granted in N.Y. County, N.Y. to Frederick Krauth on 21 Aug 1851 (53-250-60). "There was one dau who died young."

::3. HENRY LEWIS SOUTHARD (6), s. of Isaac (5), Henry (4), Abraham (3), Isaac (2), Thomas (1), b. 27 Mar 1811, d. 13 Oct 1859. On 6 (or 15) Oct 1840, he m. LOUISA MAXWELL, dau of John S. Maxwell. Both were then living in Belvidere, N.J. (N.J. State Gaz. of 21 Oct 1840, p.3, gives the m. date as 6 Oct. Other sources say 15th.) After Henry died, Louisa m. 2nd John Ball of Sonerville. His career is summarized in "Hist. of Elizabeth, N.J." by E. F. Hatfield (1868). He grad. from the West Point Mil Acadamy, but decided to go into medicine. After a period of study under his uncle, Dr. Samuel L. Doty of Basking Ridge, he was awarded an M.D. degree in 1832/3 by Jefferson Med. College in Phil. He practiced in several N.J. communities incl, Danville, Asbury, Belvidere (where he m.), to Phillipsburg in 1843 and to Sonerville in 1847, where he practiced until his death. The above reference called Henry (6) "a nan of small stature, but erect and manly bearing". He and Louisa were bur near the Raritan River in Sonerville. Some sources say 4 ch. were born, but all seem to have died young.

9. SAMUEL LEWIS SOUTHARD (5), s. of Henry (4), Abraham (3) Isaac (2), Thomas (1), b. 9 June 1787 near Basking Ridge, N.J., d. 26 June 1842 at Fredericksburg, Va. M. in June 1812 to REBECCA HARROW of Fredericksburg. Samuel grad from Princeton U. on 26 Sept 1804 with the 5th honor in his class. He was awarded a Master's degree on 30 Sept 1807. (At that time degrees were awarded after 3 yrs of grad. or professional work.) In 1822 he was elected a trustee of Princeton and continued as such until he died in 1842. He was also a trustee of the Princeton Theo. Seminary for the same period. Copies of many of his addresses and published articles are in the Princeton Archives.

Samuel Southard was prominent in New Jersey and U.S. politics. He has been described as "impressive in appearance, with a high forehead and clean-cut features". Several portraits of him are in existence and many good reproductions appear in available references such as, "Cyclopedia of N. J." by Mary D. Ogden (Vol I, p. 39) It is said that "he thoroughly enjoyed society and was a constant favorite with the electorate". Also he was called "a skillful advocate" and "capable of impassioned eloquence".

Much has been written about his political accomplishments, a summary of which appears in the "Biog. Directory of the Amer. Congress". A brief story of his early life and a fairly extensive discussion of his political career is in John Whitehead's "Judicial and Civil History of N.J." A more personal and very readable reference is a little book with a long title, compiled by a descendant, Southard Hay. ("Centennial Address on the Birthday of George Washington by Samuel Lewis Southard - - - with a Biography of Senator Southard" by Southard Hay (1932)).

The first 28 pages of this book reprint an address Senator Southard made in Trenton, N.J. during the George Washington Centennial. Pages 29 to the end (58) contain an interesting story of Samuel Southard's life, a list of his more important writings and a very abbreviated genealogy for one branch of the family.

Samuel L. Southard (5) was undoubtedly influenced greatly by his parental training. Henry and Sarah (Lewis) Southard urged integrity, hard work and education. At twelve, Samuel was studying Latin in an Academy in Basking Ridge. Several of his fellow pupils there were later prominent in various fields. At 15, in 1802, he entered Princeton Uni. as a Junior and graduated with honors in 1804. In 1807 he was awarded a Master's degree and in 1822 he became a Trustee of the University. He also received several honorary degrees, including an LLD from the U. of Pa. in 1832.

After Samuel left Princeton in 1804 he had to earn his way and taught during that winter in an Academy at Mendham, N.J. His class included about 50 pupils, many his senior. While visiting his father in Washington, he was introduced to Col. John Taliaferro, a Representative from Va., a relative of James Monroe and a wealthy plantation owner. (Col. Taliaferro was b. on his parents' estate near Fredericksburg, Va. in 1768. He was educated as a lawyer and practiced in F. for some years. In 1801 he was 1st elected to the U.S. Congress and served there on and off for nearly 50 years. He d. 12 Aug 1852 and was buried on his estate at "Hagley".) The Col. offered Samuel Southard a job tutoring his sons and nephews at "Hagley". He accepted and for the next several years lived there. While at "Hagley" he had an opportunity to study law and in 1809 he was admitted to the Va. bar. He practiced law in Fredericksburg until the following year, when he returned to New Jersey and was licensed as an attorney-at-law in 1811. Soon thereafter he started a practice in Flemington, N.J. and was appointed Prosecutor for Pleas in the old Hunterdon County. (A law office that he had built there in 1811 still exists as a historical landmark.)

During the summer of 1812, Samuel returned briefly to Fredericksburg to marry REBECCA HARROW of that city. Rebecca was the dau of an Episc minister. Both her father and mother had died some years previously. She was made a ward of Col. Taliaferro and was presumably living at "Hagley" while Samuel was there tutoring the sons. But the wedding seems to have taken place in Fredericksburg at the home of Gilbert Harrow, an older half-brother who taught math in the old Fredericksburg Academy. Also mentioned, is Gilbert's son, James D. Harrow who was part-owner of a local newspaper called the "Virginia Herald". (See "Minor Sketches of Major Folk" (1928) by Dora C. Jett, p. 54.) (Incidentally, a search for Harrows who might have been related to this family, in Va. and adjacent states was unsuccessful. -RKP)

After the marriage, Samuel and Rebecca returned to N.J. and in 1813 he was retained as legal adviser in attempts to repeal a N. J. statute that gave Fulton and Livingston a complete monopoly on operation of steamboats in N. J. waters. The case had aroused charges of political corruption and received much public attention. Samuel pleaded for repeal of the statute and although the appeal failed at this time, his handling of the case before the Legislature received wide recognition. As a result, he was elected as a member of the State Assembly and shortly thereafter appointed as a Justice of the State Supreme Court to replace Mahlon Dickerson, who became Governor. Samuel remained on the bench until 1821 when he was urged to run for the U.S. Senate. He did and was elected.

After 15 years in the House of Representatives, Samuel's father, Henry Southard (4), had retired in 1820 and refused to run again. But he still had political influence. Both Henry and his son were prominently involved in final passage of the "Missouri Compromise" which was probably the most important issue of that critical period. There were several versions of the Southard part. Indications are that Henry, with his extensive political experience and personal acquaintance with many of the leaders, worked behind the scenes and advised his son, Samuel, who added the legal knowledge and eloquence for which he was now widely known. Several references (such as Whitehead's "Judicial and Civil Hist. of N.J.", p. 418) state that the final resolutions in the "Missouri Compromise", as presented by Henry Clay, and for which Clay received much approbation, "were the work of Samuel L. Southard, the Senator from N.J., who has received no credit as their author."

However, Samuel acquired many political friends during this period and in 1823 he became a member of Monroe's cabinet as Sec. of the Navy. In this position he introduced numerous improvements. The size of the Navy was increased substantially and ships were redistributed to meet the needs of world-wide political shifts. He built the first naval hospitals in 1828 and urged establishment of a Naval Academy. He also introduced the rank of Admiral, changed the organization to improve efficiency, started a more extensive charting of the coast and recommended ways to improve communications.

When John Quincy Adams became President in 1825, he asked Southard to continue as Sec of the Navy and Samuel held that position until the end of Adam's term in 1829. In an interim capacity, Southard also served as Sec. of the Treas. from 7 Mar to 1 Aug 1825 and Sec. of War from 26 May to 21 June 1828.

NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR 1821 - 1823

Samuel Southard's career in federal politics suffered a setback when Andrew Jackson won the Presidency in 1828. He had bitterly opposed Jackson on many occasions and took Jackson's victory as a personal loss. So he returned to N. J. and friends reported that he seemed "very much broken" and "stooped like a man of seventy". (He was then only 42.) While resuming his law practice, his interests were still in Washington. In 1833 he campaigned for and won another election to the Senate, where he continued his opposition to Jackson's policies and made several long speeches about Jackson's "suicidal doctrines".

Around the same time that William Henry Harrison became President in 1841, Senator Southard was elected President pro tempore of the Senate and he was serving as such when, only a month after the inauguration on 4 Apr 1841, Harrison died of pneumonia. John Tyler then assumed the Presidency and, under the law, Samuel Southard was effectively elevated to the Vice-Presidency. But Samuel was also in poor health and on 3 May 1841, about a month after Harrison's death, he resigned from the Senate. A few weeks later in June, he (and presumably his wife, Rebecca) went to Fredericksburg, Va., to visit his wife's relatives, the Harrows. While there Senator Southard was honored by "a hanson stag dinner". During the meal "he was seized with apoplexy, and died shortly afterwards".

Among the Washington, D.C., news reports of Senator Southard's death, one in the Daily National Intelligencer of 28 June 1842 referred to "the fatal termination of the illness under which he had long suffered". This might suggest there had been strokes previous to the one that caused his death. The same report said, "He died at Fredericksburg in Virginia, in the midst of his friends and surrounded by all the members of his family - - -." Most of the news space was devoted to his political accomplishments.

When his death was announced in the Senate Chambers, a political opponent, Senator King from Alabama, "made a most feeling address". Senator Southard was bur. in the Congressional Cen. (Range 55, Lot 140). According to the Cen. Records "two of his children (unnamed) were bur. there near him." (Range 54, Lot 140). The records say they were bur there in Nov of 1842, which was about five months after Samuel's death.

Burial of these two small children "of Samuel Southard" in the Congressional Cen. has probably been the source of conclusions that he married twice. (See, for example, Somerset County, Hist. Quar., Vol VI, p. 124.) Since Rebecca would have been nearly 50 in 1842, it could be reasoned they were the children of a second wife. But this writer has found no evidence to support such a theory. Another explanation that seems more plausible is based on the fact that the first known child of Samuel and Rebecca was born nearly four years after their marriage. Since three children were born within the next four years, it is quite likely at least two who died young were born between 1812 and 1816. During these years Samuel was not in the Congress, so they could not have been buried in the Congressional Cen. On this circumstantial evidence, the assumption here is they were buried elsewhere and moved to the Congressional Cen. after Samuel's death. The move could have been arranged by Rebecca herself, or by her daughter. Such burial changes were not uncommon then.

Where and when Rebecca died is still unknown. There are reasons to believe she was with Samuel in 1842 when he died at the Harrow home in Fredericksburg, Va. No later record of her has been found in N. J., N. Y., or Washington. (Fredericksburg records were practically all lost during the Civil War.) It may be that she stayed with Harrow relatives somewhere in the South and died there during, or after the War.

October 1832 - 27 February 1833: Appointed Governor of New Jersey.

June 1837 - January: President of the Morris Canal and Banking Company, a "major" New York bank.

Late 1830s: Director, Trenton Bank and Trustee, College of NJ (Princeton University and the Princeton Theological Seminary)

February 1833: US Senator, Chairman of the Naval Affairs Commission, member of the Senate Committee on Roads and Canals and member of the District of Columbia Committee.

1830s: owned property in New York, Florida, Virginia, Illinois, Wisconsin, New Jersey and the "Clamorgan Grant" in Missouri and Arkansas. He had a house on State Street in Trenton; lived "for a time" in the Astor Hotel in New York City while a house was being built for him in Jersey City, NJ during late 1840 by the Morris Canal Company.

31 May 1842: Resigned from US Senate.

1 January 1863: REBECCA (HARROW) SOUTHARD dies at daughter Virginia's in New York City; buried Trinity Cemetery, location of burial vault is unknown.

Potter's conclusions about his children (p. 90) are incorrect. They had 7 children:

1. JOHN SOUTHARD, born 1813, Trenton; died December 1824, Trenton; buried First Presbyterian Churchyard, Trenton.

2. VIRGINIA SOUTHARD, born 1815.

3. HENRY SOUTHARD, born 1818.

4. SAMUEL LEWIS SOUTHARD, JR., born 1819.

5. MARY SOUTHARD, born 1822, died February 1823, Trenton, buried First Presbyterian Churchyard, Trenton.

6. SARAH SOUTHARD, born 1824; died 12 November 1825, Washington DC, buried in Congressional Cemetery, Washington, DC. (Obituary printed in 23 November 1825 edition of New Jersey Mirror, states she was 2-years-old.)

7. ANN SOUTHARD, born January 1826, Washington, DC; died February 1829, Washington DC, buried in Congressional Cemetery, Washington, DC.

..3. VIRGINIA ELEANOR SOUTHARD (6)

Attended Emma Willard's School for Young Women, Troy, NY

Married 15 November 1838. (Burlington Gazette, 23 November 1838, p. 3, column 3)

Birkner lists (p. 180) only 2 children of VIRGINIA (SOUTHARD) and OGDEN HOFFMAN:

1. SOUTHARD HAOFFMAN, born "late 1839"

2. SUSANNA HOFFMAN, born 1840

..4. HENRY LEWIS SOUTHARD (6)

May have been involved with House of Prayer Episcopal Church, Newark, NJ with brother Samuel.

(H.L. SOUTHARD, Declaration of Trust, 10 January 1851; NJ Historical Society, Manuscript Group 1073)

23 June 1864: New Jersey Mirror (p. 3, column 1): HENRY SOUTHARD "died of wounds received from a rebel shell to the spine in the small of his back." He was a "fine officer and skillful engineer, having built some of the best earthworks in the Department of the South." HENRY was buried in the cemetery of the Church of the Intercession, Upper Westside Manhattan, adjacent to Trinity Cemetery. At that time Intercession was a separate cemetery from Trinity and, according to Trinity Cemetery employees in 2006, Intercession has maintained the cemetery records for that period. Intercession employees claimed in 2006 to have "never" had a separate cemetery and it has always been Trinity Cemetery and therefore, Intercession has no cemetery records at all. [NOTE: Intercession operated their cemetery SEPARATE FROM Trinity until the late 19th century; their 2006 employees are ill-informed]

..5. SAMUEL LEWIS SOUTHARD, JR (6)

1849: First Rector of House of Prayer Episcopal Church, Newark, NJ. First meeting 7 November 1849.

(NJ Historical Society, Manuscript Group 1073)

Birkner states that SAMUEL, JR. was a lawyer.

:::4. HENRY LEWIS SOUTHARD (6), b. 1817, d. 3 June 1864 in Va. of Civil War wounds. He was unmarried.

The Trenton (N.J.) Daily Monitor for 11 June 1864 contained this announcement: "Died on June 3, from wounds received at Bermuda Hundred, Captain Henry L. Southard, Company K, First New York Volunteer Engineers, and son of the late Hon. Samuel L. Southard of New Jersey.

"The funeral will take place from the Church of the Transfiguration, East 29th Street, near 5th Avenue, New York, this (Saturday) afternoon at 3 o'clock. The relatives and friends of the family and his sister, Mrs. Ogden Hoffman, are invited to attend without further invitation."

A summary of Capt. Henry L. Southard's early career in the State Daily Gazette of Trenton for 14 June 1864 read in part as follows- "He was a son of Hon. Samuel L. Southard and, we think, was born in this city. He lived here for many years and read law here. After being admitted to the bar, he gave up the practice of law, qualified himself as a civil engineer and was in the successful practice of his profession when the breaking out of the rebellion called him to the field. He was a gentleman of decided ability, of amiable manners and universally beloved by those who knew him."

Princeton Uni. records show that Henry Lewis Southard entered the College from Trenton in 1833 and received a Master's degree in 1839. Apparently he studied law in Trenton and practiced there for a while. He was not there during the 1850 census, or in Trenton directories around that time. Indications are he was in NYC, possibly studying civil engineering. He appeared in the NYC directory for 1860 as "Surveyor" and was apparently an absent partner in a surveying firm while away during the Civil War. The 1864 directory showed him in the firm of "Southard & Buckhout, Surveyors, 41 Park Row".

On 3 Oct 1861, he enrolled in NYC "for the War" and was made a captain of Company K in the N.Y. Vol Engs. In April of 1862 he was assigned to the "Department of the South" with headquarters at Willow Wharf, Va. On 27 May 1864 "he was mortally wounded while directing engineering work at the front." On 3 June 1864 he died in a hospital at Bermuda Hundred, Va.

Some of his earlier correspondence is in the Mil. Archives in Wash. D.C. There is also a letter written by his commanding officer, Col. Serrell, to the hospital authorities, asking them to let Capt Southard know that "if there is anything I can do that he wishes done, he has only to ask it." And there is another that informs the Col. of Capt. Southard's death.

The place where Capt. Southard's funeral service was held in NYC is best known as "The Little Church Around the Corner". Their records say that "Capt. Southard was bur. at the Chapel of the Intercession, which belongs to Trinity Parish - - -." (This is the place where his older sister, Virginia, was buried some 22 years later.

Capt. Henry L. Southard died without a will. Admin of his estate in NYC was granted to his sister, Virginia (Southard) Hoffman on 31 May 1865 (81-77-111).

::5. SAMUEL LEWIS SOUTHARD ,Jr. (6), s. of Samuel (5) and Rebecca H., b. 19 Oct 1819, d. 23 Nov 1859 in St Louis, Mo., n. VIRGINIA E. HIGBEE (b. 1830), dau of Joseph C. Higbee of Coshocton Co., Ohio. They were m. 8 Nov 1842 in St. Michael's Church, Trenton, N.J. when Virginia was abt 12. Samuel entered Princeton Uni. as a Sophomore in 1833 and grad. in 1836. He then enrolled at Trinity College Seminary in 1839 and grad. in 1842. On 6 Aug 1846 they awarded him an Hon. degree of A.M.

Rev. Southard was made a Deacon of the Episc. Church in 1842 and served during the next two years at Christ's Church in Bellville, N.J. Between 1844 and 1850 he was in Calvary Church, N. Y. City (NYC directories show him as living at E. 26th & Lexington Ave. from 1845 to 1849) From 1851 to 1854 he was in the House of Prayer in Newark, N.J. From 1855 to 1857 he served in St. John's Church, Buffalo, N.Y. Then, according to Trinity College records, he "lived in Philadelphia" (apparently without a church) in 1858. The same records say that during 1859 he was made rector of Christ Church in Booneville, Mo. But the 1859 directory for St. Louis, Mo. (abt 130 ni E of Doneville) lists Rev Samuel L. Southard as living in the Rectory of St. Paul's Church. In reply to the writer's questions about Samuel L. Southard, the Archdeacon of the Missouri Diocese replied, (1973) "Mr. Southard does not appear in the Parochial Register of St. Paul's Church, St. Louis, nor in any other clergy list." A typed report on the case of Samuel L. Southard, apparently prepared in 1913 and presently in the Trinity College files (They sent me a copy.) says, "In Sept 1859 he resigned as rector and asked to be deposed. He still belonged canonically to the Diocese of Western New York and was therefore deposed by Bishop De Lancy of that Diocese on Oct 18, 1859". Elsewhere this same report says, "No reason is given for his (Rev. S.L.S) having requested deposition and it may very possibly have been because of his failing health."

On 23 Nov 1859, about a month after Deacon Samuel L. Southard was deposed, he died "in bed" in St. Louis. The official report gives the Place of Death simply as "Walnut Street" (which could have been the Episc Rectory address). And Cause was "Marasmus" which is defined in Fishbine's Medical Ency. as a condition in which the victim appears thin, loose-skinned and wrinkled with sunken eyes, as if old beyond his age. It can be brought on by an intestinal disorder that reduces assimilation of nourishment from food. It is more common among infants than adults. Other, less official sources have suggested a more specific cause for his ailment. For example, a record of his death in the Newark, N.J. files gave the cause as "Consumption". Still another version appears in the copy of a typed letter now in the Princeton Archives. This letter is dated 17 Dec 1932 and addressed to a Southard descendant. It is not signed, but its content suggests the author was a Princeton Archivist. Concerning the Rev. Samuel L. Southard's death, it says, "He died at St. Louis - - - from an overdose of chloroform." If this is a fact, it could account for much of what went on during and after his death. However, it should be kept in mind that this may not have been the scandal that his church and others seem to have assumed. Actually, chloroform was the "sleeping pill" of that era. It could then be purchased without perscription at any pharmacy. And it was well known that a few drops on a handkerchief spread over the face would soon induce slumber. Nornally, it was not considered to be a particularly dangerous procedure, but with a heart ailment, or other illness, it could result in death.

Details concerning Samuel L. Southard's death in St. Louis were rather obviously kept out of the papers. His funeral service was not held in a church and he was not buried in the Episc. Church Cen. Only two St. Louis newspapers included any report of his decease and the most detailed was this, in the Daily Evg. News of 24

Nov 1859, "Died - In this city on Tuesday morning Nov 22nd(which is one day early) the late Rev. SAMUEL L. SOUTHARD, aged 39 years. His funeral will take place this (Thursday) afternoon Nov 24th at half-past 3 o'clock from Barnum's Hotel, to Bellefontaine Cemetery."

The death was reported about 2 weeks later and without detail in the east. On Dec 9th a Trenton paper quoted a Newark paper as saying "that a letter from St. Louis states that the Rev. Samuel L. Southard, formerly Rector of the House of Prayer in Newark, died suddenly - - -. Mr. Southard was a native of Trenton, a gentleman of fine talents and a very eloquent preacher."

A record of his death only appears in N.J. as a "death record for Newark" (N 415). This record says, "Samuel L. Southard, d. 28 Apr 1860" which is over five months after the actual death date recorded officially in St. Louis. The Newark record also says he "died of consumption" and it does not, as usual, name his parents.

The Bellefontaine Cemetery where Samuel L. Southard (6) was bur. is non-sectarian. A booklet, "Tombstone Talks", prepared by the Landmarks Assoc of St. Louis says, "Many people whose lives contributed with glory to the westward expansion of the U.S. - - - are buried here." Samuel was bur in the "Bowlin Lot - No. 81" near the NW-center end of the grounds. His marker reads, "Rev Samuel L. Southard 1819-1859". This lot belonged to Judge James B. Bowlin, called "a prominent member of the Bar who held court in the old St. Louis Court House which is now a national landmark." Judge Bowlin was Judge of the Criminal Court, later a member of the U.S. Congress and finally Minister to Bolivia. Why Samuel Southard was bur in the Bowlin lot is not known. Possibly Judge Bowlin knew Senator Southard in Washington, or he may have simply resented the attitude of the church.

Indications are that Samuel's wife, Virginia and the children were not with him in St. Louis. They may have been in Trenton since Rev. Samuel L. Southard was listed in the Trenton directory for 1859. She and the children were in Trenton in 1860 and during many years following. They were in Ward # 1 of Trenton during the 1860 census. "Virginia E. Southard, widow of Samuel L." was in Trenton until 1903 when she apparently died. The following 5 ch were listed with their widowed mother in the 1860 census for the 1st Ward in Trenton, N.J. -

DANIEL BLAIR. But no mention has been found of the marriage in N.Y. or N.J. records. However, there were a good many Blairs in northern N.J. during the interval 1760-70 when the marriage presumably occurred. Over a dozen appear in Stryker's Officers and Men of N.J. in the Rev War" and two of these, Benjamin and William, enlisted from Hunterdon County.

In 1777 Richard bought from his brother Henry a farm in Bernards Twp., Somerset Co., N.J. Local histories usually call this "the Van Doren property". (The Van Dorens were distantly related through the Lewises.)

(1), b. abt 1755, d. without a will in Somerset Co., N.J.
The inventory of his estate (582 R B 16, p. 517) was signed 28 Jan 1778. He was prob another victim of the smallpox epidemic that swept that area in 1777. The papers were signed by his brothers, Isaac (4) and Henry (4) and a relative by m. (via the wife of Lott Southard (6)), Jacob Ricky. Daniel died at 23 and no evidence has been found that he had married.

:8. ABRAHAM SOUTHARD (4), the last ch. of Abraham (3) and Cornelia (Barnes) Southard, (NOTE - There are some differences of opinion concerning both his b. and d. dates. The following are considered "most likely" by the writer.-RKF)
b. Jan 1759 in Basking Ridge, N.J., d. 20 Mar 1855 near Hanover, Licking Co., Ohio. m. abt 1791 in Wash. Co., Pa., to ELIZABETH HULL, dau of Francis and ~~Elizabeth~~ Catherine Hull of CATHERINE Wash. Co., Pa. Abraham served in the Rev War. (Stryker ref.
p. 288). During the late 1780's he left N.J. and settled in Nottingham Twp., Wash. Co. (near Pittsburgh in the SW corner of Pa.) By 1775 a stage route had been established from Perth Amboy, N.J., via Philadelphia, Carlisle and Bedford to Pittsburgh. Beyond this there were only horse trails at this time. In Wash. Co., Abraham met the family of Francis Hull, who, according to family stories, had been scalped by Indians while on a fur-trading trip down the Ohio River. The 1790 census for that area shows the following Hulls as family heads: John, Nathan, Solomon, Thomas, Zachariah and Rachel. The first five were probably brothers of Elizabeth and the last was a widowed sister-in-law.

Abraham does not appear in that census perhaps because he had not yet married and become head of a household. (Some sources have suggested that Abraham was in Burke Co., N.C., in 1790 where that census listed there an "Abram Sotherd". But the family of this "Sotherd" included two sons under 16 and one dau, which makes the suggestion unlikely. Dependable records show the 1st ch. of Abraham and Elizabeth was b. in 1793.)

Abraham (4) appeared on the tax list for Nottingham Twp., Wash. Co., Pa, in 1800. Family tradition has it that he endorsed a note for a friend and lost heavily so that they moved to Ohio "in straitened circumstances". In any case, around 1805 or 6, Abraham took his family about 150 miles west to Perryton, Licking Co., Ohio. (abt 40 mi ENE of Columbus.) Both Abraham and Elizabeth died there. They and several of their children were bur in Hanover Cem. (abt 5 mi SW of Perryton.)

There is some difference of opinion concerning the number of their children and where they were born. One source says, "The first six were born in Pa. and the last six in Ohio." However, more than 12 are mentioned in other family notes. An analysis of the available information suggests there were 14 as listed below. -

- ..1. FRANCIS HULL SOUTHARD (5), b. 31 Mar 1793 in Wash. Co., Pa.
- ..2. ELIZABETH (or "ELIZA") SOUTHARD (5), b. 22 June 1794.

Part IV - Southards of Southern New Jersey

Nearly all early Southards of southern N.J. were apparently descendants of JOHN (2) and GRACE SOUTHARD of Hempstead, Long Island. In fact, many of the Southards living in this area now have been traced to the same source. So far none has been found to originate elsewhere.

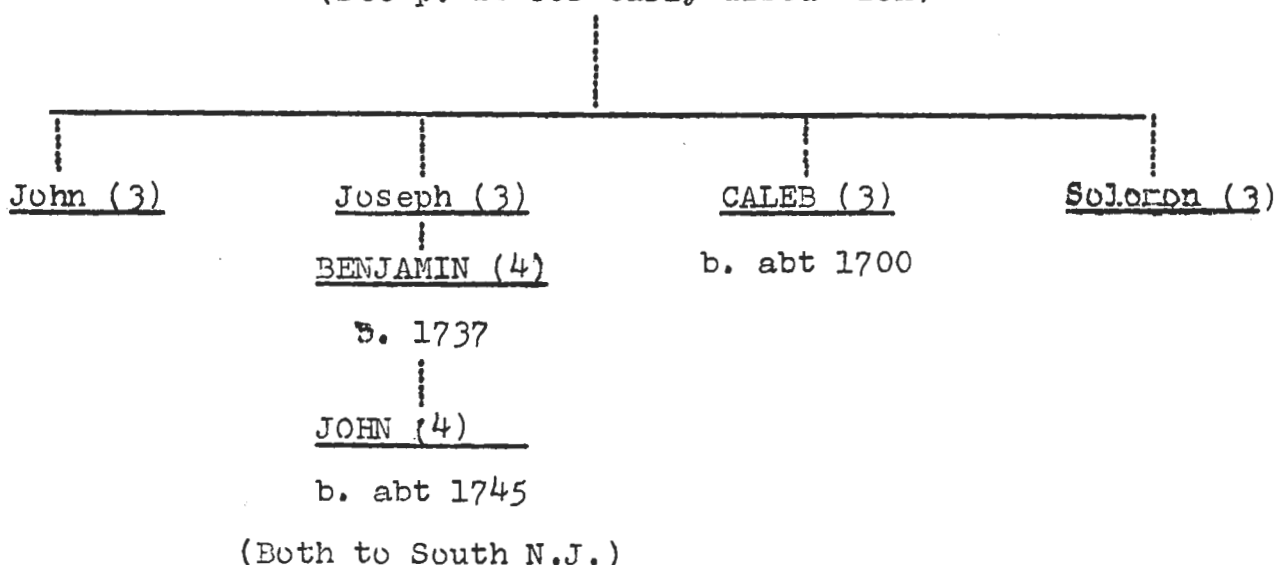

In the chart below, two grandsons of John (2) and Grace, BENJAMIN (4) and JOHN L. (4) are included. These two settled in southern N.J., along with their uncle, CALEB (3) who is also shown.

There are many descendants of BENJAMIN (4) in the southern part of the state, but little is known about the younger brother, JOHN L. (4). On 20 Mar 1767, Benjamin signed a license issued in Little Egg Harbor (not far from where his Uncle Calab had settled earlier) for John's marriage to HANNAH FAULKINBURG. However, no later record of John has been found. Quite possibly he did not survive the War.

In the discussion starting on the next page, descendants of BENJAMIN (4) will be considered first. Discussion of CALEB (3) descendants will start on page 126.

Four Sons of JOHN (2) and GRACE SOUTHARD

BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (4) and Some of His Descendants in Southern New Jersey

The story of Benjamin Southard (4) is continued below from Part I, page 22. Just how he removed from Long Island to New Jersey is not very clear. His parents seem to have left the Island around 1750, along with many others who crossed Long Island Sound to Connecticut, or sailed up the Hudson River to Dutchess County, N.Y. and elsewhere in order to get away from the political and religious turmoil. Apparently all the adult Southards who stayed on the Island signed the L. I. Declaration of 1776 (See bottom p. 51) Benjamin's father, Joseph, did not. Nor was he there after the War and during the census of 1790.

There is some evidence that Joseph took his family from Hempstead to the Fishkill, N.Y. area about 1750 and his sons Benjamin and John may have come back down the Hudson to the N. J. coast in the early 1760's when Benjamin was in his 20's. Since no record has been found of Benjamin's first marriage to Jane _____ on Long Island, or in New Jersey, he may have married before this move. Probably Benjamin and his younger brother John came first to Stafford Township (now in Ocean County) on the south-central coast of N. J. because their uncle, Caleb Southard (3) was already settled there. The time of their arrival is uncertain, but it was probably during the early 1760's.

Bible records kept in the family of Virginia (Holloway) Lee (N.J. Genea. Soc. Collection, Rutgers Uni.) provide much of the information included below concerning children of Benjamin (4) by his first wife, Jane. Unfortunately, even this information is confined to one branch of that family. And practically nothing is known about descendants via the 2nd and 3rd marriages. They might account for some "unknowns" who have turned up during the course of this Southard research.

a. 1. BENJAMIN SOUTHARD (4), s. Joseph (3), John (2), Thomas (1), b. 5 June 1738 in Hempstead. He was bapt with his younger sister, Mary, at St. G's Ch. in Hempstead on 23 June 1744. This record identifies his parents as "Joseph and Chienche Southard". Other records show that "Chienche" was the Dutch name of Catharine Barns who married Joseph at St. G's in H. on 23 Dec 1737. (Seep. 21)

Benjamin (4) d. 1790/92 in Cape May County, N.J. He m. three times, 1st, around 1760 to JANE _____ who was b. 18 June 1744, 2nd to ABIGAIL HEWITT. The last ch. was b.

Supposedly, the Bible Records of Benjamin SOUTHARD, born 1738, are on deposit with the Genealogical Society of New Jersey.

1773 - 1774: A "Benjamin SOUTHARD" is found as a "hired hand" in the "Middle Precinct of Cape May County.

to Jane in 1771 and Benjamin obtained a license to m. Abigail in Greenwich, Cumberland County, N. J. (South end of State on Delaware Bay) on 21 Apr 1773. (Bond Books S-594). The 3rd m. was to PRISCILLA HILDRETH. He obtained a lic. to m. her on 22 May 1789 in Cape May County. His will, signed 7 Sept 1790 in Cape May Co., and proved 8 Aug 1792, was signed with a shaky "X". (581 E. 890 E.) It leaves everything to "my wife Priscilla Southard and her heirs forever". Only one ch. is mentioned - "my dau. Rachel", described as a minor. The assumption here is that there was only one ch. by this 3rd m. -

RACHEL SOUTHARD (5), b. abt 1790.

see 14 Joseph HILDRETH, will of Even less evidence has been found concerning the 2nd marriage to Abigail Hewitt. But they were married for about 15 years and it seems likely there were several children.

Possible Brother of Benjamin (4), or Abraham (4)

Living near Benjamin (4) in the extreme southern part of New Jersey, was a REUBEN SOUTHARD who has been something of a riddle. Some have speculated that he was a younger brother of Benjamin. Only one record has been found involving this given name. It is in an inventory (590 E) of the estate of "the late Reuben Southard of Lower Township in the County of Cape May, N.J.". The inventory was signed on 30 Sept 1813 by Spicer Hughes and Matthew Whillden, who seem to have been appointed by the Court. Nothing in this document provides any genealogical information.

A letter, written by one W. E. Southard of Ephrata, Wash., in 1950 seems to identify Reuben as a brother of Abraham (4) of Basking Ridge, N.J. The letter was written to Nettie Allen of B.R. (See "Nettie Allen Collection"). In part, it reads, "I am 82 (b. 1868) so can go back a ways. My Great-grandfather Reuben Southard was a Rev. War veteran. --- My Grandfather, Reuben Southard, Jr., was born in New Jersey on 4 June 1800. He had several brothers including Dempsey, Micajah and Robert. The family left New Jersey about 1810 and first moved to South Carolina. But none of them remained in N.C. (Note change from "South" to "N".) I believe they all moved on to Tennessee, where my Father was born. Dempsey is the only great-uncle who remained in Tenn. ---- My Great-grandfather had two brothers who migrated into Ohio and they multiplied rapidly. Some that I met were lawyers ---- . "

That his great-grandfather was a Rev. War veteran, indicates he was probably born around 1750. That he had "two brothes who migrated into Ohio" would seem to place the great-grandfather as a brother of Abraham (4). As far as the writer knows, Abraham (4) was the first Southard to settle in that state. He was born in Basking Ridge, N.J. during Jan 1759 (See p. 101) (NOTE - Information received very late from C. D. Southard of Northfield, III., seems to further identify Reuben, Sr., as a brother of Abraham (4) It suggests that, after a quarrel with his family, this brother changed his name and left home. It is said he never contacted his parents again and his father, Abraham (3) seems to have disowned him. This might account for use of a given name which is strange among the early Southards - RKP)

The First Family of Benjamin (4)

As was mentioned earlier, the most specific information concerning descendants of Benjamin Southard (4) relates to the first family. Source of the early information here will be referred to hereafter as the "Lee Bible Records". In the discussion that follows, data from this source has been tied in with much information obtained from census records and, in some cases, data provided by living descendants.

The Lee Bible Records list the following four ch. of Benjamin (4) and the 1st wife, Jane Southard -

- ..1. JOHN SOUTHARD (5), b. 7 June 1763.
- ..2. REBECCA SOUTHARD (5), b. 5 Sept 1765
- ..3. ABEL SOUTHARD (5), b. 21 Mar 1768
- ..4. CALEB SOUTHARD (5), b. 4 Mar 1771

While family and official records contain much information concerning descendants of Abel (5), nothing further has been found regarding John (5), Rebecca (5) and Caleb (5). It may be that the two sons died young. Rebecca (5) may either have done the same or married. But no record of her marriage has turned up.

Accordingly the following discussion concerns only one of the known sons of Benjamin (4) and Jane, namely Abel Southard (5). His name appears frequently in the early records.

..3. ABEL SOUTHARD (5), s. of Benjamin (4), Joseph (3), John (2), Thomas (1), b. 21 Mar 1768, prob in Hempstead, Long Island, d. 17 Aug 1816, m. LYDIA _____, prob in Conn. abt 1792. An Abel Southard signed the L.I. Declar. of 1776 (See bottom p. 51) and this is the last appearance of that given name the writer has found among L. I. records. One N. J. death record shows that Abel and Lydia were in "New Haven, Conn." in 1802 when their son, Abel, Jr. (6) was born. No evidence has been found that Abel (5) and Lydia came to N.J., but most of their sons apparently lived there during their maturity. The Lee Bible records list 11 ch. of Abel (5) and Lydia Southard. -

John Southard (8) was certainly born in 1850 and in New Hanover Twp., Burlington Co. (Prob near Jacobstown) In the 1850 census he was listed as an infant of "3/12 yrs" and in 1860 he appeared as "10 yrs".

In the following New Hanover Twp census of 1870, John was not with his parents, but there was a John Southard living in the same township and married to a HARRIET _____. She was 10 yrs older than John (8), s. of Joseph (7) and Mary.

see next 2 pages

This John Southard who married Harriet can be traced clearly for the rest of his life and the only question is whether he was John (8) and not some unknown John Southard who happened to come to New Hanover Twp., at about the same time John (8) left his parents, or died. This unlikely coincidence, plus the fact that the husband of Harriet was buried in the same cenetery as Jacob (7) and Mary, and other evidence in his death record, has convinced the writer both Johns were the same despite some odd disagreements in dates.

In the 1870 census for New Hanover Twp., John and Harriet had 3 young children, the oldest a dau who was born in 1863. Since John (8) was b. in 1850, he would have been only 13 when the birth occurred. So the assumption is they were children of Harriet's by a previous marriage.

On 21 Oct 1878, John signed a will (1875 3C) in New Hanover Twp., and abt 2 weeks later, on 6 Nov 1878, it was probated. The will was very brief, leaving everything to "my wife Harriet Southard". It only mentions "my children" without naming them.

Not Right -
Different John

says he 'died "of consumption" after an illness of 2 years. It has his death date as 25 Oct 1878 and the place as Cookstown, New Hanover Twp., Burlington, Co. Rather obviously, the family information was provided by someone not very familiar with the facts. (Perhaps it was the oldest dau Anna, then 15.) The name of John's mother was first written in as "Lydia" (his sister". Then this was lined out and replaced by the correct "Mary Ann". His father's name was given as "Andrew", which was certainly wrong. This given name was unknown among early Southards in N.J. And it was not Joseph's middle name because his middle initial was well documented as "S.". (Perhaps Anna gave them the name of her maternal grandfather.)

A rather large and impressive marble monument marks the burial plot of John and Harriet in the Bapt. Cem., in New Egypt, N.J. It is relatively modern, probably erected many years after John died, possibly in the middle 1900's. (The writer has been unable to locate any church records or old-timers who recall the circumstances of the monument's erection. On one side are these names and dates -

John Southard, b. 22 Aug 1827
d. 26 Oct 1878

Harriet Southard Challenger, b. 16 Oct 1844
d. 29 Apr 1905

b. 13 Sept. 1864
Cookstown

← Lydia Southard, b. 6 Feb 1866
d. 31 July 1868

Separate small stone says: 1865
1869

Charlotte Southard, b. 23 May 1867
d. 1 July 1870

(CRS-D2-567-LIM 70)

On the other side of the stone are these -

William G. Southard 1870-1928
Harry H. Matlack 1868-1938
Sadie S. Matlack 1878-1958
Hattie H. Carter 1880-1951

The above indicates that Harriet m. _____ Challenger after John died. William prob did not marry. Sadie S. (or Sarah) m. Harry H. Matlack and Hattie m. _____ Carter.

There are several differences between the dates on this monument and those in the census reports. John Southard's birth date is some 23 years too early. Harriet's birth date from the 1860 census was 1840. On the stone it was 4 years later. William's b. date agrees with that in the census reports. Sarah's was 14 years later on the monument and Hattie's was 5 years later. The women all became younger!

Caleb Southard (3) and Some of His Descendants

in

Southern New Jersey

- EXPLANATIONS -

Most of the relationships concerned with descendants of Caleb (3) and Charity (Beat) Southard are well documented by wills, death records, census listings, etc. However, some in this branch are based on undocumented evidence, such as the combination of birth dates, recurrence of given names, proximity of residence, etc. Rather than interrupt the genealogical story where these undocumented relationships occur, the reasons for their acceptance will be discussed here under numbered "Explanations". At appropriate points below will then be inserted, "See Explanation # -".

Explanation # 1. - Although this has not been fully documented, it is assumed here that Joseph P. Southard (6) was a son of David (5), Amos (4), Caleb (3). His given name was common in that branch, he lived near David (5) in the Batsto, N.J. area for many years, he was born when David (5) was 21, and no other "possible" father is known. Efforts to locate a Death Record for Joseph P., which would probably name his parents, have so far been unsuccessful.

Explanation # 2. - It is assumed here, on the basis of somewhat circumstantial evidence that Joseph P. Southard (6) married twice. The 2nd marriage is fully documented, but the 1st is not and is accepted here as a fact on the basis of these indications: First, the known marriage occurred in 1835 when Joseph P. (6) was 42 years old. A 1st marriage at 42 years seems highly unlikely. Second, two Southard death records name, as the Father, "Joseph Southard" (The Mother's name is left blank in both.) The first of these two Southards was b. in 1816 when Joseph P. (6) was 23. The other was b. abt 1823 when Joseph P. was around 30. Both occurred before the known marriage in 1835. Since no other "Joseph" is known who could have been the father, it is assumed the father was Joseph P. (6).

Other evidence suggests there was at least a third son in the first family of Joseph P. and there may well have been more who have not been located, or died young. And it is very probable there were daughters, who have either not been identified as such, or married, or d.y.

Explanation # 3 - That David (6), b. abt 1815 and d. 1891/6 was a son of David (5) is still undocumented. However, it is accepted here. Since David (6) was the progenitor of a large Southard branch in southern N.J., an extensive effort was made to verify the relationship through a Death Record, or Birth Record, or will, etc. Results of this effort have been completely unproductive, so it has been necessary to rely on other indications. The convincing indications are these: First, it is probable that one son of David (5) would have been given his father's name. David (6) is the only known David would seem to meet the requirements. Secondly, David (6) lived near David (5) and he was about 43 when the assumed son was born. Thirdly, the 1840 census for Washington Twp., Burlington County where David (5) and his wife Mary lived, showed them with 3 sons. In this census family members were not named, but age categories for males and females were included. The oldest son then at home with the parents was b. 1800-1810. The next son was b. 1810-1815 and the third 1815-1830. It is believed these were James (6), David (6) and Nathan (6). In the 1850 census, which was the first to name all family members and give their ages, only Nathan (6), b. 1821, was still with David (5) and Mary. All the others had married and left. (Incidentally, at this time David (5) and the sons Joseph P. (6) and James (6) were all living in Waterford Twp., Camden County, which was about 10 miles from where David (5) was residing during the 1840 census.)

Explanation # 4. - The father of Silas Southard (b. 1804) has not yet been identified beyond a doubt, but is assumed here to be a son of David (5) (b. 1772) and Mary Southard of the Batsto, N.J. area for the following reasons: Decendants of Silas Southard say that his son Godfrey (7) was born near Batsto in 1840 when Silas was 37. The 1840 census report for that area showed a "Silas Southard" there as a family head. With him were a wife and one son "under 5 years". This seems to have been the Silas in question and the son was probably Godfrey. They were not in the 1850 census for the Batsto area, but appeared then in the census of Union Twp., Ocean County. So it is assumed that Silas came from the Batsto vicinity and was probably a son of some Southard down that way. The only known Southard who could have been his father was David (5) who would have been 32 when Silas (6) was born.

Explanation # 5 - The conclusion that John (6) was the oldest son of Amos (5) and Mary of New Egypt, N. J., is based largely on the facts that his family names, his birth date and location of residence favor that assumption and that no other likely parents have been found.

3. CALEB SOUTHARD (3), s. John (2), Thomas (1), b. 1700/05 in Hempstead, Long Island, N.Y., d. 1780/83 in Stafford Twp., Monmouth (now Ocean) County, N. J. He m. CHARITY BEAT 31 July 1732 at St. George's Episc. Church in Hempstead.

NOTE - He was apparently the first descendant of Thomas Southard (1) to have been given the name "Caleb". It almost certainly came from Caleb Carman, who lived on a farm adjoining the old Southard homestead in Hempstead. Several Carmans married Southards. The given name has become common among later generations of Southards descended from John (2). It is almost completely absent in other branches. RKP

On 15 Dec 1752, Caleb (3) sold his farm on Coe's Neck in Hempstead (adjacent to one owned by his brother Joseph (3)) and his name was not mentioned thereafter in the Town Records. Apparently the family moved across Long Island Sound to the vicinity of New Haven, Conn., where they may have remained until the early 1760's. Then he and Charity appeared in Burlington County, N.J. and one of their daus was married there in 1764. The oldest son, Caleb (4), seems to have made the move with them and later settled in Dover Twp., now Ocean County. On 3 Mar 1769, while still in his middle 30's, Caleb (4) signed a will there which was probated 7 weeks later on Apr 25th. (3619-3622 M BK p. 91). He probably died during an epidemic that was prevalent in southern New Jersey at that time.

Caleb (3) died eleven years later. On 18 May 1780 in Stafford Twp., which includes the present Manahawkin, N.J. and is about 20 mi south of Dover Twp., where Caleb (4) had died, he signed a will. This will (5085 M) names his wife Charity, 3 surviving sons, 3 daus and one grandch. There are reasons to believe 3 additional daus were left out of the will due to death, or for other reasons. The 10 children, in an estimated order of birth based on name sequence in the will and other evidence, were as follows -

- :1. CALEB SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1733
- :2. JOHN SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1735
- :3. AMOS SOUTHARD (4), b. abt 1740 p. 136
- :4. PHEBE SOUTHARD (4), b. maybe 1743/5 p. 154

In some cases nothing further is known about the above. In others a great deal of information concerning descendants has been collected. Where more is known it appears below between successive single and broken lines.

names his wife as ELIZABETH and their two children were called "minors". The ch were named as follows -

- ..1. AMY SOUTHARD (5), b. maybe 1765
- ..2. JOB SOUTHARD (5), b. perhaps 1767. Job witnessed the will of his Uncle Uriah (4) in 1789 and signed his own will (8734 M) on 20 Mar 1807 in Stafford Twp. He may or may not have married. The Admin he named in his will was "Mary Southard", who might have been his wife, or a known cousin by that name. No indication of children.

pp. 129-136

..2. JOHN SOUTHARD (4), b. around 1735, d. (?), m. ELLEN _____, perhaps in Hempstead. They apparently went to Conn. and N. J. death records name a son Solomon as born in Conn. in 1772. Evidently John and Ellen did not come to N.J. and Solomon is the only known son to have lived there. While John (4) was named in his father's will as one of the surviving sons, he has not been found in early N.J. records or in the Conn. census of 1790 as a SouthARD. There was one John SouthWARD in Conn. during that first census. (The Southards and Southwards of Conn. have not been properly researched by this writer. A closer look at the family in this state might turn up some interesting facts.) The one known child of John (4) and Ellen Southard, who came to New Jersey was -

..1. SOLOMON SOUTHARD (5) His d. record shows he was b. 1772 in Conn (perhaps near New Haven), d. 9 May 1857 in Manahawkin, N. J. He m. twice, 1st MARTHA _____ and 2nd to PHEBE _____. In the earliest census available in N.J., that of 1830, he appears with a wife 30-40 years of age, a dau 5-10 and a son "under 5". They were then in Stafford Twp., Monmouth (now Ocean) County. A son John, Jr, known from other records, and then 29 had, by this time, married and left. In the 1840 census Solomon seems to have had the same wife, but there were no children at home. In 1850, when all family members were first named and ages given, they were still in Stafford Twp., but his wife was now "Phebe". She was 59, or b. in 1791. There were no ch. with them. Solomon was listed as 78 (b. 1772) and a "Cooper". The one known child identified by a d. record as b. to Martha was -

..1. JOHN SOUTHARD (6), b. 1801 in Manahawkin, d. 8 Mar 1861 at Colliers Mills (abt 4 mi E of New Egypt, N.J. His d. record describes him as a "laborer" and his parents were named as "Solomon and Martha Southard" He m. UNITY LENNING who was b. 1811/12. The 1850 census for Plumstead names 11 ch and two born later were named in 1860. The 13 ch of John (6) and Unity (Lenning) Southard were -

Following 3 pages discuss ..1. John SOUTHARD and Unity JOHNS and their descendants.

::1. John Southard (6) born 1801, died 8 March 1861 at Collier's Mills in Jackson Twp, N.J. Married Unity JOHNS (born 1812) on 10 October 1829 in Monmouth County, NJ according to an index to the records of the clerk of that county. Unity's surname has often been given as LENNING; which is correct has yet to be determined. The extractor may have accidentally entered the groom's given name in the space for the bride's surname. However, buried in the same cemetery as Unity and John is one Joseph Johns, a contemporary of Unity, being born in September 1805. John and Unity seemed to have lived in Plumstead Township all their lives, being there for their last one in 1860 (1860 US Census, Ocean County, NJ, Plumstead Township, Series M653, Roll 705, page 26, lines 18-26). To anyone familiar with proper reading of the census schedules, it is immediately apparent that John is the head-of-household and Unity is his wife. They are supposedly both buried in Zion (Methodist) Cemetery in New Egypt but Unity's name is not found in a survey of that cemetery published in the January 1960 issue of The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey. The ravages of time are evidenced in an online extraction of this cemetery in which the names John SOUTHARD and Joseph JOHNS do not appear, meaning their grave markers are illegible, destroyed or missing.

Some researchers believe John did NOT marry Unity, no matter her surname. However, their "proof" has no bearing on the question at hand when critically examined, e.g., "A researcher has proven that John did NOT marry Unity Lennings. The death certificate of Martha L. Harris states that her father was John Southard and Her Mother was Nancy JOHNS." WHO is "Martha L. Harris" and just how does this establish ANYTHING about Unity Lemming? The person making this statement then continues on to list 11 children, not all 13, and not one of them is named Martha. In another part of this "researchers" work is found the following "Martha L. Southard, born 1837, daughter of Solomon SOUTHARD, married Martin HARRIS of Colliers Mills (born 1833 to Levi and Mary Ann Harris)." Information appearing on vital records such as death certificates is only correct if the informant knows the correct answers and, of the vital records, death certificates are the class that has the most errors by far.

- a) Margaret SOUTHARD (7), born 1829
- b) John SOUTHARD (7), born 1830 in New Egypt, died 17 October 1896. He married Mary Buckalew on 7 January 1854 in New Egypt. She was born 25 May 1841 (married at 12? In the 1860 census her age is 21 and a calculated year of birth of 1839 so, married at 14?); she died at New Egypt on 8 January 1904. Civil War service included Company, 3rd Regiment, NJ Volunteers. They are buried in Zion (Methodist) Cemetery in New Egypt. Their children were:
 - i) John SOUTHARD (8) born 1857
 - ii) Caleb B. SOUTHARD (8) born 1858. Living with James BUCKALEW in Plumstead Township for the 1900 US census (ED 163, sheet 10 or 16, line 43). He died 1937.

..1. DAVID SOUTHARD (5), b. 1772, prob near the present Manahawkin, N.J. and died "of old age" at 87 on 23 May 1859 in Winslow in Camden County. His death record (E 416) shows that he left a widow. His parents were not named, but there is little doubt that he was the oldest son of Amos (4) and Apalina Southard. David apparently married twice because the known wife of the later children was too young to have been the mother of the early ch. The name of the 1st wife is not known. The 2nd wife was MARY _____. She was named as his wife and her age was given in the 1850 census for Waterford Twp., Camden County. Her b. date was 1785. She was alive, at 74, in 1859 when David died. She did not appear in later census reports for Waterford Twp. The census reports, death records and in a few cases, less specific evidence indicates 10 ch.-

NOTE - Much of the following data concerning David (6) and Mary (Ford) Southard's descendants was provided by Mrs. Helen Lee Mack of Holiday, Fla. (1974). She is one of their descendants and has prepared an, as yet unpublished, genealogy concerning this branch. As a matter of fact, Mrs. Mack had collected more detail on recent generations of marriage-related families than could be used here without straying too far from the purpose of this genealogy, which is to trace the surname "Southard". Throughout the discussion so far some marriage-related lines have been carried down to the present generation, but not to such an extent that the Southard surname is submerged. - RKP

In 1840 one of the daus had presumably m. and left. In 1850 (when all family members were first named and their ages given) the 2nd dau had left and one son was married and living nearby. The other 2 sons were still living with their widowed mother. The 5 ch were -

Little is known about Willets and Richard, except that both were "boatmen", "unmarried" in 1850 and living then with their widowed mother. In 1860 they were missing and the mother was living with her son Samuel. Possibly the other sons had "gone west". Further details concerning Samuel S.(6) are included below.

:::3. SAMUEL S. SOUTHARD (6), b. 1814, d. 14 July 1864. His d. record (AA 323) calls him a "farmer of Manahawkin" and identifies his parents as "Caleb and Mary Southard". About 1850 he m. RUTH PAUL who was b. 1825 and d. 1870. In the 1860 census for Manahawkin, N.J., Samuel's widowed mother, Mary G. at 68 was shown as the family head and a "confectioner" (probably operating a candy store). Samuel was a "Mariner" and he and Ruth then had 3 young children. Death reports identify 2 more who d.y. between the 1850 and 1860 census listings and a 6th ch., b. in 1862, is known from cen. records. Samuel, Ruth and 3 of the ch., are bur in the Meth. Cem. at Manahawkin, N.J. and named on a headstone. Descendants in Ruth's family (the Pauls) still live in the Manahawkin area (1974). The 6 ch were -

...3. WILLIAM HENRY SOUTHARD (7), b. 1853, d. 1923. He used both his given names separately at different times. Called "Mariner" in 1870 census. Be was bur with his parents under the name, "W. Henry". No indication that he married.

...4. ANN SOUTHARD (7), b. 1855, d. 1932. The grave stone calls her, "Ann Roward Southard" which could mean she m. _____ ROWARD.

...5. ABIGAIL SOUTHARD (7), b. Sept 1856, d.y. 27 Feb 1857.

...6. MARY E. SOUTHARD (7), b. 1862, d. 1947. She was bur with her parents in the Meth. Cem., Manahawkin. Prob unmarried.

...3. ANTHONY SOUTHARD (5), Prob b. 1775/80. He was mentioned in his father's will of 1825 so undoubtedly alive then. However, no Anthony of this generation has been found in later N.J. records so he may have . or left the state.

...4. AMOS SOUTHARD (5), s. of Amos (4), Caleb (3) and Charity. He was b. "1770-80" acc. to early census reports and d. 1840/50, or after the 1840 census and before that for 1850. m. - ..6. URIAH SOUTHARD (5)
- ..7. JOHN SOUTHARD (5)

Hunterdon Co, NJ, 23 April 1815, married:
Uriah SOUTHARD and Molly MORE

These three youngest sons of Amos (4), Caleb (3), John (2), Thomas (1) was prob b. 1775-80. They were presumably alive in 1825 because they were named among the beneficiaries in their father's will of that date. But none of the three has been identified in later N.J. records. They were about 40 or 50 at the time of their father's death, so may have married and left the state.

- ..8. CHARITY SOUTHARD (5)
- ..9. RUTH SOUTHARD (5)
- ..10. PHEBE SOUTHARD (5)

Also nothing more is known about these 3 daus of Amos (4) and Apalina. However, they were prob alive when their father's will was signed in 1825 and well along in years. It is likely they were m. and had families of their own.

..11. MARY SOUTHARD (5), the youngest dau of Amos (4) and Apalina (or Athalana) has been traced by Gertrude N. Brick of Crosswicks, N.J. (1974) who has "researched the Ridgway family for some years" and has plans to publish her results later. The following information was provided by her.

Mary was b. 2 May 1778, d. 28 Feb 1838. She m. RICHARD RIDGWAY as his 2nd wife. They were m. 1 Apr 1798. He was a son of Richard and Lavina (Bird) Ridgway and was

b. 1768, d. 1813. (Acc to Gertrude Brick, this information came from a Bible that had belonged to Amos Ridgway (6) below.) After Richard d. in 1813, Mary (5) m. 2nd in 1813, ROBERT SMITH (Acc to a deed (W-453) in Freehold, Monmouth Co.) There were 5 ch., all by the 1st m. -

:4. PHEBE SOUTHARD (4), Dau of Caleb (3), John (2), Thomas (1), b. maybe 1743/5. The "Early Marriage Bond Books" in Trenton (S-370) show John Southard (Prob bro of Benjamin (4)) as one of the bondsmen for the license of Phebe Southard, spinster, and JACOB FAULKENBURG, both of Burlington County, to m. It was dated 8 Mar 1764. (poss. Rel. of ~~Manahawkin~~ Faulkenberg? mar. John Southard (4) - see p. 22)

:5. CHARITY SOUTHARD (4), dau of Caleb (3) and Charity of Manahawkin, N.J., b. abt 1746. She was licensed on 25 Aug 1767 to m. HENRY CAYLER of Evesham. (Book C- p. 434)

:6. URIAH SOUTHARD (4), s. of Caleb (3), John (2), Thomas (1), b. maybe 1750, d. 1788/89. App unmarried. Uriah signed a will in Stafford Twp., (now Ocean County) (Prob near Manahawkin) on 13 Nov 1788. It was proved on 23 Mar 1789 (6263-6266 M, B 30, p. 179). His brother Amos (4) was named as one of the executors and the other was Nathan Bartlett. Witnesses were his nephew Job (5), Dennis Crawford and Samuel Brown. (The latter was rel by m.)

In the will property is left to his sister Elizabeth (4) and his brother John (4). He also mentions a "brother" Hezekiah, but it is believed he was actually a brother-in-law, and Elizabeth's husband. A reason for this belief is that he has not been identified as a "Southard" in any other records and he was not listed in the will of Caleb (3) as one of his sons. (His surname is not known.) Also mentioned in Uriah's will was a child "Joseph". He is not identified, but the reference suggests he was Elizabeth's son. The circumstances suggest that Elizabeth and her husband looked after Uriah and his farm during his final illness.

:7. ELIZABETH SOUTHARD (4), b. around 1748. In addition to being named in the wills of her father, Caleb (3), and her brother Uriah (4), as mentioned above, she was left $50.00 by her Aunt Mary (Southard) Brown in a will signed 25 Nov 1806. Indications are that she married HEZEKIAH and had one son named JOSEPH, as suggested above in the discussion of Uriah Southard (4).

:8. LOIS SOUTHARD (4) was named in her father's will of 1780 but not found in any later records. The assumption is that she married.

:9. RUTH SOUTHARD (4). She witnessed a codicil to the will of Joseph Pancoast, Mansfield Twp., Burlington County (a few miles W of Jacobstown) on 27 1766 and signed with her maiden name. It is believed that she later married a grandson of this Joseph Pancoast, but the evidence is not very solid.

:10. HANNAH SOUTHARD (4), dau of Caleb (3), John (2), Thomas (1), was b. abt 1756. She was licensed to m. PHILIP WHITE of Burlington County on 16 Aug 1777. (W-480)

APPENDIX

SAMUEL DOTY SOUTHARD (6), s. of Isaac (5), Henry (4), Abraham (3), Isaac (2), Thomas (1), m. ANNA LOUISA HEWITT in Trenton, N.J. on 1 July 1847. (See p. 83.). A niece of Anna Hewitt, Louisa Hewitt (1855-1933) prepared a genealogy of this Hewitt branch that is in a notebook now (1973) in the possession of her nephew, Charles Conrad Hewitt of Trenton. It is based in large part on a series of old letters that Louisa had meticulously copied. The notebook is in a fragile state. In places, the writing has faded to a level of bare legibility. Since no data concerning these Hewitts seems to have been published, and since this information could be of considerable interest to descendants of Samuel Doty (6) and Anna Louisa (Hewitt) Southard, it is summarized below.

The generation numbers start with the earliest Hewitt identified in the old letters.

The early Hewitts of this line lived in several towns of west-central England between Liverpool and Birmingham. They were cabinet and clock makers. The earliest presently known is identified in notes written by a descendant after visiting the towns of Connock and Penkridge (abt 18 mi NNE of Birmingham) in 1873 and talking with oldtimers. The oldest recalled a John Hewitt who, with three unmarried sisters, ran a tavern in Connock and had a small cabinet shop next door. The tavern was still standing in 1873 and called, "Roebuck Inn." A letter, written by John, Jr., son of the innkeeper, to his son John III in America on 8 Mar 1799 started with the local news and then added, somewhat incidentally, "was down at ne father's funeral last week." which shows the innkeeper died in early Mar of 1799.

One son of the above JOHN HEWITT (1) is clearly identified. He wrote the letter quoted above and was a cabinetmaker in Knutsford, an ancient village about 25 mi WSW of Liverpool. He was JOHN HEWITT (2) and letters he wrote to his son, JOHN HEWITT (3) in America mention "your Aunt Warsey". She died in or about 1798 "after a long ailment". Her husband seems to have been, "Uncle Spillsbury".

The early succession, put together from data in the letters, was as follows:

JOHN HEWITT (1), Born maybe 1700, Married, but wife's name unknown. Only one son identified and no evidence of others.

JOHN HEWITT (2), b. maybe 1720-25 in Knutsford, Eng., d. 26 July 1803. He m. SARAH TOMLINSON of Penkridge around 1770. She was b. abt 1720 and d. 20 Oct 1806. John (2) was a cabinet and clockmaker of Connock. They had 5 ch.-

- .1. MARY (or "POLLY") HEWITT (3), b. around 1771/2.
 - .2. MARTHA HEWITT (3), b. 1774
 - .3. JOHN HEWITT (3), b. 1777
 - .4. ROBERT HEWITT (3), b. Maybe 1780
 - .5. SARAH HEWITT (3), b. (?) (Called, "youngest")

Between successive broken lines below are some details re each of the above.

.1. MARY (or "POLLY") HEWITT (3), b. Maybe 1771/2, d. 11 July 1798 "after a long illness". One family note says "she m. a BEECH", but no other evidence has been found to confirm this.

.2. MARTHA HEWITT (3), b. 17 Apr 1774, d. (?), m. JOSEPH BEECH, a cabinet maker and locksmith of Little Bloxwick. A son, JOHN BEECH (4) was b. 1801 and there were "3 boys living" in 1805.

.3. JOHN HEWITT (3), b. 8 Jan 1777 at Penkridge (abt 60 mi. SE of Liverpool in Staffordshire. He was bapt there on 5 Feb 1777. John (3) d. 1857 in Trenton, N. J. He sailed from Liverpool early in Jan of 1796 and arrived in N.Y Harbor 12 Jan 1796. Shortly thereafter he set up a cabinetmaking shop on lower Manhattan near the present Chathan Square. His letters were addressed to "Mr. John Hewitt, Cabinet Maker, Henry Street, New York, U.S.A." His brother Richard sent over clocks to sell and John, in return, shipped Robert mahogany which was much less expensive in the States. Earlier letters from his parents and his brother Robert in England congratulated him on his "success in business" and all the money he was making. Later letters from his parents urged him to return home before they died and his brother wrote glowingly of how, if he came back, they could expand his business. But there are no indications that John (3) ever returned, even for a visit.

An article in the N.Y. Herald Tribune for March 22, 1948 describes a reunion of 110 John Hewitt (3) descendants in the auditorium at Cooper Union in N.Y.C. In this article, John (3) is described as, "the engineer of the first ocean-going steanboat". Another source (Ency Br. 14th Ed., Vol 11, p. 535 (b)) says, he "was one of a party of four mechanics who were sent by Boulton and Watt (the English mfr. and his partner, the inventor) to Philadelphia about 1790 to set up a stean engine for the city water-works and who in 1793-94 built at Belleville, (N.J.) the first stean engine constructed wholly in America."

On 31 Oct 1808, John Hewitt (3) m. ANN GURNIE, a dau of Francis and Eleanor (Parsell) Gurnie of Haverstraw, N.Y. One family note says she was b. in 1784. She d. 28 May 1870 "of paralysis". Both were bur in Mercer Cem. Trenton, N.J. There were 8 ch.-

Abram Hewitt graduated from Columbia College in 1842 and taught math there for a while. Then, with Edward Cooper, a son of Peter, the Cooper, Hewlett & Co. was organized for the manufacture of iron girders used in bridge and building construction and Abram was made its head. During the Civil War the Company made gun barrels at a loss of about $100,000 a year because Abram refused to profit on the operation. In 1871 he entered politics and was prominent in Tammany Hall. Later, when corruption took over, he severed the connection. During the years 1875-1879 and 1881-1886, he was a Representative in Congress. In 1886 he became mayor of N.Y.C., winning over Theodore Roosevelt and Henry George.

- A New Jersey Unknown -

Among the very early Southards of northern New Jersey, one of the unknowns that has been most frustrating is discussed in a small volume by J. Percy Crayon entitled, "Rockaway Records of Morris County, N. J. Families" (1902). On p. 115, under a heading, "The Southard Family", he describes a Timothy Southard who lived in Hibernia, N.J. (abt 15 mi N of Basking Ridge where Abraham (3) settled around 1750). Crayon implies that Timothy came from Long Island and that he and his wife were living in Hibernia in 1740-45 when she died during the birth of their 1st ch., Timothy, Jr. According to this report, the mother was bur in Rockaway, which is a few miles S of Hibernia. After her death, Timothy, Sr., sold his place and left Timothy, Jr., with a family named Hedden while he returned temporarily to Long Island, presumably to get someone to help care for the infant. The story is that he never returned and Timothy, Jr., grew up with the Heddens, but kept his surname. The book says that Timothy, Jr., "married early and had a large family" although only the following 5 ch are named -

1. NANCY (1768-1851), m. David Gordon (1759-1852). David was a s. of Capt Wm. Gordon, a quartermaster in the Rev Army.
2. Neomi (1772-1851), m. Samuel Palmer in 1791. He was b. 1769 and d. 1845. Both bur in Rockaway.
3. Timothy, III, b. maybe 1745/5. He was a schoolteacher, lawyer and Justice of Peace in Morris County and d. "near Lake Hopatcong" which is abt 15 mi NNW of Basking Ridge.
4. Isaac
5. Benjamin

Timothy, Sr., who was married and living in Hibernia, N. J. in 1740-45, would probably have been born around 1710-20. However, no Timothy Southard of this generation has been found elsewhere in the records of New York, or New Jersey. The only Timothy found in N.Y. records appears in the 1850 census for Hempstead as b. 1834 and the son of Samuel and Amelia Southard (p. 26) who are also as yet unknown. Among the N. J. records there was a Timothy Southard who served in the N. J. Militia as a pvt under Col John Dodd from Sept 1 to Dec 2, in 1814. This could have been the Timothy III listed above. Also in N. J. a

A Benjamin SOUTHARD was ensign, Captain Sylvanis SEELY's Company, 1st Regiment, Morris County Militia, 1776; promoted to Lieutenant under Captain Josiah HALL's Company, Eastern Regiment, Morris County Militia, 1781

Timothy Southard (b. maybe 1805/10) m. Mary C. Ludlow on 23 June 1830, acc to Morris County (N.J.) marriage records. He might have been a great-grandson of the Timothy, Sr described by Crayon.

- Westward Migration of Southards -

The early Southard movement westward apparently followed the general patterns of migration. At present they are scattered throughout the country. Correspondence with some of these suggests that many are descendants of a relatively few and that successive generations moved further west as the country became more accessible and otherwise suitable for settlement. Information concerning a few of these migrating Southards is included below. Further research will continue and if enough of interest can be learned, a supplement to the present genealogy concerned with the Southard migration may be undertaken later.

The following Southard data came from Mrs. Velma F. Southard, widow of Lester C. Southard, now (1974) living in Spokane, Wash. Her letter was received after the main text had been completed. The information she sent was compiled by John E. Southard (1866-1934+). He was apparently interested in his Southard ancestry and had arranged at least two Southard Reunions that were held at his home in Hillsdale, Ind. (The 2nd was in Sept 1934.)

Earliest in the ancestral line included here is a JOHN WESLEY SOUTHARD, b. 1748 and d. 1856 in Hillsdale, Ind "at 108 years". He was undoubtedly named after the great English Methodist, John Wesley (1703-1791). During a visit to America in 1735, Rev. Wesley visited the English community of Hempstead, L.I., N. Y. and his sermons created quite a stir. For several generations following this occasion, Southards of Long Island, N. Y. were given this evangelist's name. As far as is known, only the Southards of Long Island used the name. Accordingly, it is believed that the above John Wesley Southard was very probably born on Long Island and was a descendant of Thomas (1) and Annica (Jansen) Southard.

An analysis of the way in which the above John Wesley Southard might have been related to the Long Island family, suggests that he was John (4), s. of Joseph (3), John (2), Thomas (1). This John (4) was undoubtedly born in Hempstead whereas the family record compiled by John E. Southard of Hillsdale, Ind says he was "born in Virginia". However, the evidence seems to contradict this.

The John (4) mentioned above is described on p. 112 of the preceding text. He came to the southern coast of New Jersey with his older brother, Benjamin (4), during the middle 1700's when many Southards and others left Long Island due to political and religious unrest. On 20 Mar 1767, when John was 19, his brother Benjamin signed a license issued in Little Egg Harbor, N.J. for John's marriage to a Hannah Faulkenburg. No later record of John (4) has been found in New Jersey, so it was assumed he went elsewhere, or did not survive the War. The conclusion here is that he went to Virginia where he may have served in the Revolution, and about 1840 moved his family west to Indiana. (See note at end.)

In the following genealogy for this branch, the data provided by Mrs. Velma Southard is combined with that included for John Southard (4) in the earlier text (p. 112) and arranged to match the organizational form employed so far throughout the book. Also approximate dates have been added where no dates were included. While evidence to justify the identity of John Wesley Southard and John (4) is still circumstantial, it seems sufficient to be accepted with a little reservation.

:4. JOHN WESLEY SOUTHARD (4) (See middle p. 21) For reasons discussed above, he is believed to have been the s. of Joseph (3), John (2), Thomas (1), b. 1748, prob on Long Island in N.Y., d. 1856 (at 108 yrs) in Hillsdale, Ind. NOTE - Calif. census records are available 1850 and following. A search of those for 1850 might confirm the above move. However, both William and Robert would have been abt 85 in 1860, so are less likely to have been listed in the later census reports. - RKP

With the Southards above is listed the following without an indication of the specific relationship -

NANCIE WEBSTER, "granddau of John W. Southard," moved from Va to Ind when she was 5 yrs old* and d. at 97 in Montezuma, Ind. (near Hillsdale). Bur there. Maybe she was b. abt 1835, so d. abt 1932., m. _____ BARNES. 1 ch known -

DOROTHEA WEBSTER BARNES., b. 1857. In 1934 she was living in Montezuma and app unmar.

*NOTE - Her birth date, based on the assumption she was 22 when Dorothea was born, would have been about 1835. Since she was 5 when they moved from Va. to Ind., this would make the move about 1840.

The following data came from Mrs. Viola H. Chenard of Mojare, Calif. The progenitor she names was a John Southard, b. abt 1780. (See p. X where Mr. R. D. Crawford tells of a "John Southard, 75 yrs (b. 1775), - Farmer" listed in the 1850 census for Vermillion Co., Ind.) His given name, his age, that he came from Va. and settled in west-central Ind., at least suggests that he may have been a son of the John Wesley Southard discussed previously. In the following arrangement of Mrs. Chenard's data, the generation numbers used conform with this assumption, largely as a matter of convenience.

The following as yet unidentified Southard data came from Mrs. Cheska Wheatley of Whittier, Calif.

JAMES SOUTHARD, b. 1814 in N. C., d. 1869 in Ind., m. 28 Feb 1836 in Hancock Co., Ind. (near Indianapolis) to WINNIFRED THOMAS who was b. 1815 in N.C. 9 ch., all b. in Hancock Co. -

5. GEORGE WASHINGTON SOUTHARD, b. 1845, m. in 1868 to MARTHA FRAZIER.
6. LYDIA ELLEN SOUTHARD, b. 1848, d. 13 May 1881, m. in 1868 to ISAM W. DENNEY (They were in ancestral line of Mrs. Wheatley.)
7. MARY ELIZA SOUTHARD , b. 1852, m. GEORGE W. POPE
8. CASSEY A. SOUTHARD, b. 1854
9. ROBERT SYLVESTER SOUTHARD, b. 1857, m. 1888 to MARY A. GANT.

The following Southard data came from Mrs. Thelma P. Meek of Pueblo, Colo. (1974). She wrote, "You will notice an "s" added to the Southard name in my Grandfather's time. I do not think it belongs there, but evidently it was added by someone and it stayed on the records."

Her documented ancestry starts with John S. Southard, b. abt 1825 in Ohio, but she provides convincing evidence that the mother of this John S. was a Hannah Southards who added the "s" and who appeared as a family head during the 1830 census for Franklin Co., Ohio.

Among the early Southards of Ohio, only one who might have been the father is known to the writer. This was John Southard (5), one of the 13 ch. of Abraham (4) and Elizabeth (Hull) Southard, who came from Wash. Co., Pa. to Licking Co., Ohio in 1805/6. (See p. 109). But, if so, he was around 10 years younger than his wife and died in Hanover, Ohio, apparently with his parents, on 18 Feb 1832. This was 2 yrs after Hannah appeared as the family head in 1830. (An explanation could be that John (5) was ill with consumption and to avoid exposure of his family, went to stay with his parents - a precaution commonly recommended by doctors in those days.)

Generation numbers, used in the following as a convenience, are based on the above uncertain assumption that Hannah's husband was the John Southard (5) described above.

Data from Mrs. Meek -

JOHN SOUTHARD (5), b. around 1797 in Pa., d. 18 Feb 1832 in Hanover, Ohio. Possibly m. HANNAH _____ who was b. 1785/90 in Pa. In 1830, at abt 40/45 yrs., she appeared in the census for Franklin Co., Ohio as "head of the household" with one son (5/10 yrs) and 3 daus. (She spelled the surname with an added "s".) By 1840 she had moved abt 600 mi WSW to Taney Co., Mo., and with her was the son and now only 2 daus. In the 1850 census she was living about 40 mi. NE in Wright Co., Mo., with her youngest dau, Matilda (then 21 & b. in Ohio) who had m. Thomas Dobbs. She and the Dobbs family were not found in 1860, but the one son, John S. Southard, was married and living in Wash. Twp., Webster Co., Mo. (abt 10/20 mi W of where Hannah lived with the Dobbs family in 1850). Four Ch., including those in the 1830 census report, were -

The following data from Mrs. Ellis Laidlaw, now of Walla Walla (formerly of Waitsburg), Wash., concerns her Southard ancestry. The line had been rather clearly established in Sept of 1972 by Richard Rider of Delmar, N.Y., but word of this was received too late for use of the data in the main text. Mr. Rider is a Southard descendant who "over the years ---- has accumulated quite a bit of information on the descendants of Thomas Southard who settled at Gravesend and Hempstead, L.I. ca. 1650." He adds, "Most of my material pertains to the Fishkill-on-Hudson and Rhinebeck Southards, from whom I descend."

Mrs. Laidlaw had family records going back to her gt-gt-grf., Samuel Isaac Southard (b. 1775) and there was some evidence that he came from Dutchess County, N.Y. She corresponded with several about this and in 1972, Mr. Rider sent her both a record of Samuel's marriage to Jamima TerBos (or Turbush) in Fishkill and a quit-claim deed that included Samuel and a sister Jane, the latter married to a Christian TerBos. As Mr. Rider explained, these were among known children of Richard (4) and they appear here in the earlier text (p. 64) as such. This evidence and the dates involved, provide rather convincing evidence that the Samuel Isaac Southard in Mrs. Laidlaw's records was Samuel (5), s. of Richard (4), (3), Thomas (2), (1).

Following is the information concerning this branch provided by Mrs. Laidlaw -

SAMUEL ISAAC SOUTHARD (5), s. of Richard (4), (3), Thomas (2), (1), b. 3 Aug 1775 (Prob in Fishkill, N.Y.), d. (?), m. JAMIMA TER BOS (later Anglicized to TURBUSH) at the Fishkill Trinity Episc. Church on "8-9-1800". She was b. 4 Sept 1784 "in Germany" ((?) I would rather suspect Holland - RKP). They later lived near Rochester, N.Y., where he was a shoemaker. There were 13 ch.-

Following is additional information concerning SAMUEL B. SOUTHARD (7) and some of his descendants. It was received from Kathleen Raynes of Massapequa, Long Island after the main text had been completed. (See p. 28 and following.)

Concerning Samuel B. Southard (7), she wrote in part, "My father told me he had married second a sister-in-law." This was presumably the Phebe Ann Southard he m. in 1866.

Of William Henry Southard (8) she wrote, "They lived near the docks of Freeport (Hansen Place) and all ran rum during the prohibition era. They lost a boat loaded with rum to the Coast Guard on one occasion and nearly got killed. I have heard stories of this incident told by my parents and grandmother many times. They said the boat was smeared with blood and that Grandpa received a note warning him not to reveal its ownership or he would be shot."

She said Benjamin Southard (9) (p. 30) had, in addition to Benjamin, Jr. and Charles, a son Leo and girls whose names she could not recall.

Of the Greenfield Cem., in Hempstead she wrote, "It contains many Southard graves and should provide much Southard information."

Additional information concerning the children of Phebe Elizabeth Southard (9) was provided as summarized below.
